U.S. Takes Giant Stride Toward Space With Orbiting Of 4-Ton Atlas Missile

U.S. Prestige Rebounds In Atlas Firing

Scientific, Military Status Zooms In Critical 'Cold War'

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's scientific and military prestige, a key element in the cold war, rebounded high today from the lows of double disaster a year ago.

A mighty U. S. Atlas rocket roared into orbit around the earth Thursday night. It became a satellite weighing between 8,700 and 8,800 pounds—three times heavier than the biggest Soviet Sputnik.

That was a comparison easily understood by the man in the street in London, Moscow and New Delhi.

It carried significance too for the military officer and government official: the United States had a missile with power and control to dump a nuclear warhead on a target on another continent.

Of such stuff is made prestige that can bolster friends, give pause to enemies and nudge the vital in-betweeners who want to lean with the winning side.

The U. S. comeback seemed incredible in view of the shattering Soviet success starting with Sputnik I Oct. 4, 1957, a Pearl Harbor Day for U. S. prestige.

On Nov. 3 the Russians threw into orbit Sputnik II, carrying little dog Laika. The weight this time: a half ton.

On Dec. 6, Pearl Harbor Day again so far as U. S. prestige was concerned, America's first satellite-bearing rocket—a Navy Vanguard—blew up on its launching pad.

Not until Jan. 31 of this year did the United States get its first foot in the satellite race. But the Army's Explorer I weighed only 31 pounds, a midget against its Soviet rivals.

On March 17 the Navy finally got a satellite into orbit too, shooting Vanguard I to a record far point of 2,246 miles to give

ATLAS IN ORBIT. Roy Johnson, director of the Advanced Research Projects Agency, announces the Atlas ICBM was placed in "perfect orbit" at a press conference at Cape Canaveral, Fla., Thursday night. Atlas Brings Space Flight, 'Labs' Closer

Sprung 'Secretly', Huge Missile Could Spur Soviet Moves

Sprung from well-kept secrecy, it could spur the Russians to push harder and faster in their always secret space plans.

Just 14½ months ago, man was still earthbound. Then Sputnik I startled, and shocked, the Western world.

Now the United States has scored a prodigious comeback. It possesses the heaviest as well as the most satellites. It has sent two probes nearly a third of the way to the moon.

Temporarily, America leads.

But the Soviet Union could play the next trump soon. Indeed, some space experts are puzzled why she hasn't done something spectacular since the 1½-ton Sputnik soared up last May.

The main significance of Atlas is in advancing the ability accurately to thrust big and heavy satellites into space.

Big enough to carry men.

Big enough to watch the world's weather in the making through TV eyes, tracking hurricanes, vastly improving forecasts.

Or act as great communications centrals, instantaneously relaying a vast volume of cables, "mail" and TV shows to any point on earth.

Or to carry telescopes seeing our universe with awesome and rewarding new clarity, undisturbed by the earth's shimmering air.

All these are eagerly anticipated by scientists.

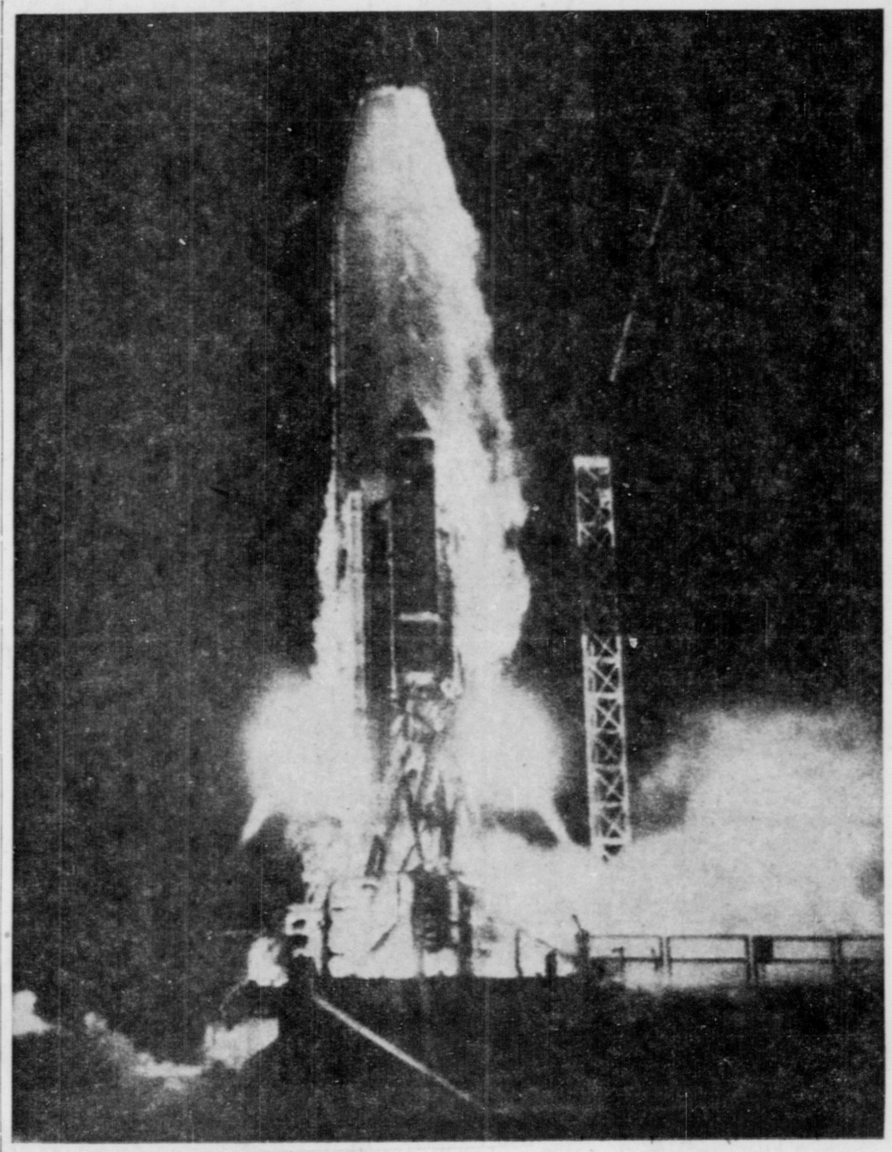

The Atlas missile will be a main workhorse toward these goals until far more powerful rockets are developed.

Atlas, with smaller rockets staged atop it, could also launch instrumented probes investigating Venus and Mars, or going into orbit as artificial planets of the sun. Shots for Venus and Mars are among U. S. current plans.

Before man looks down at earth from a sky perch, much hard work remains to be done.

We must learn how to recover the protective, well-stocked capsule that can sustain his life within a satellite. Re-entry and medical problems of survival are being vigorously studied.

Rockets and controls must become reliable enough to give any volunteer a really good chance of making the round-trip.

BLASTING OFF. The Air Force ICBM Atlas is shown as it blasted off its launching pad at Cape Canaveral, Fla., Thursday night on its flight into orbit. The over four-ton missile-satellite is expected to remain in orbit about 20 days. (UPI Telephoto)

Big Satellite Dwarfs Reds' Sputnik III

'Operation Score' Expected To Remain Aloft For 20 Days

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. rocketmen hurled a four-ton satellite into orbit around the earth Thursday night in a giant stride toward outer space and man's mastery there.

The feat, dramatically announced by President Eisenhower at a White House diplomatic dinner, gave this country the biggest known manmade object now swinging around the planet. The new Pullman car - size satellite dwarfs the 2,919 pounds of Russia's Sputnik III launched last May 15. It comes close to, or surpasses the bulk of the Soviet carrier rocket which went separately into orbit but plunged to its death Dec. 7.

But even more significant from the rocketmen's viewpoint are two other features:

The space traveler, dubbed "Operation Score," carries two-way communications which promise untold practical benefits for the future.

And it was pointed into its path by an internal guidance system, rather than being sent on a preset course like a bullet—a long step toward true space navigation.

Triumphant over the success of their project, American scientists quickly raised their space sights. They began talking about putting a man aboard another such vehicle and sending it to Venus or Mars.

President Eisenhower called it "a distinct step forward . . . (which) opens new opportunities to the United States and all mankind." The Pentagon echoed his words, accenting the peaceful aspects of launching a satellite the size of a Pullman car.

But early comment from members of Congress indicated a preference to dwell on what it means in military terms.

And even in Moscow, celebrating the 3,000th orbiting of Sputnik III, man-in-the-street reaction was favorable. American reporters, bereft of any official comment, approached a cab driver who said: "Good. It gives us competition."

Eisenhower broke the news dramatically at a White House state dinner for diplomats. White House press secretary James C. Hagerty and Pentagon officials spread the word to reporters and the world.

The Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile was launched at 6:02 p.m. Thursday from Cape Canaveral, Fla. The whole thing,

Hearing Held For New Trial

Raimond Testifies Before Lisbon Court

Jerry Raimond of Newell, seeking a new trial on his conviction Nov. 21 for burglary of the Burbick Hardware Store in 1952, testified this morning at a hearing before Judge Raymond Buzzard concerning his motion for a new trial.

Raimond and Ira Cunningham, former city policeman, have filed for another trial in their conviction for the burglary — one of nine criminal indictments returned against seven police officers in 1956.

Raimond, ex-special officer, testified this morning on the aspects of an alibi which his counsel, Atty. Hugo Alexander of Steubenville, maintains is grounds for a new trial.

At the November trial, Fr. William Slipski of Youngstown, former St. Aloysius Catholic Church priest, advised the court in the absence of the jury Raimond had been visiting him at Youngstown the night of the burglary.

Judge Buzzard at that time ruled the testimony was inadmissable because the defense failed to file notice of alibi as required by law.

The defense maintains it was unawares of the nature of the priest's testimony in time to comply with the alibi notice law. Fr. Slipski said he did not tell Raimond what he would testify prior to his taking the witness stand.

Creeps Before Khrushchev

Bulganin Admits Betraying Party

By The Associated Press

Sick, tired old Nikolai Bulganin groveled before Nikita Khrushchev Thursday and begged to be allowed to live out his days in peace.

Bulganin admitted to the Communist Party Central Committee that he had conspired against the party. The 63-year - old former Soviet Premier said Premier Nikita Khrushchev was right in accusing him and four other ousted leaders of reactionary activities.

Khrushchev apparently staged the humiliation of his old traveling companion as a weapon against continued conservative opposition to his radical adaptations of Communist doctrine to Soviet economic conditions.

By making the proceedings of the committee meeting public immediately, Khrushchev took his case directly to the people, whom he is wooing with promises that industrial and agricultural innovations will mean better living.

Bulganin's confession and Khrushchev's own attacks on the five-man "antiparty group" are designed to discredit all who oppose Khrushchev.

Contrite speeches were one of the devices used by Stalin to discredit his opponents. They were a prelude to execution then. None of the antiparty five is known to have met a fate worse than banishment to a small-fry job in the provinces.

Former Premier Georgi Malenkov was last reported running a power station, former Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov was serving as ambassador to Outer Mongolia, former Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov was teaching school and onetime economic boss Lazar Kaganovich was running a factory.

Bulganin came out of semiretirement in southern Russia to speak again in the committee where once his was a prominent voice. As premier from 1955 until last March, while party boss Khrushchev actually ran the country, Bulganin's stout, goateed figure became world famous.

He traveled to India, Britain and other countries with Khrushchev. He posed for pictures with President Eisenhower in Geneva in 1955 and signed numerous letters to the White House.

But, Bulganin said Thursday, "when in 1957 the antiparty activities of (the other four) actively developed, I joined them." As premier, he added, "I not only became their accomplice but also nominally their leader.

Always a shrewd politician with an eye to his own and other peoples' intrigue, Khrushchev held off a showdown with the group in June 1957 until he could bring up enough party supporters to outvote and exile them. Bulganin then turned coat and ended up backing the winner, but he himself lasted only a few months longer.

He plunged from premier to director of the state bank to head of a regional economic council at Stavropol, a post he indicated he still held.

A-Test Ban Parley Adjourns For 2 Weeks

GENEVA (AP) — The three-nation talks on a nuclear test ban adjourned today for a two-week Christmas recess.

At the last meeting before the recess, U.S. delegate James J. Wadsworth submitted technical program for the staffing and equipment of a worldwide chain of observer posts.

City Hospital Employe Held In Drugs Case

Theft, Possession Of Narcotics Cited In Worker's Arrest

A drug-addicted boiler fireman at City Hospital, who admitted breaking into a locked cabinet in the hospital's surgery recovery room to replenish his supply, was held to the Grand Jury on bonds totaling $7,000 today in Municipal Court on charges of burglary and illegal possession of narcotics.

Robert Scott Schultz, 23, of 337 Ray St. pleaded guilty to both counts when arraigned before Judge George L. Brokaw. Bond was set at $3,500 on each charge.

Schultz was taken into custody Tuesday by Lt. Clyde W. Boso and Patrolman Lloyd Garvey of the Special Service Bureau, accused of forcing his way into the drug supply at the hospital about 4:45 a. m. last Saturday, Chief Americo Radeschi said.

Lt. Boso said Schultz gave police statements in which he explained how he built up an addiction to drugs "to a certain extent" through comparatively min-

City's Policies Will Continue, Mayor Writes

The city administration will continue "with the same high standards of integrity, respect for law and effort toward community improvement," Mayor Fred P. Lawrence said today in a letter officially accepting the resignation of Safety - Service Director Dan Maggianetti.

"You have gotten this community off dead center and given it a positive momentum in the direction of pride and progress," the mayor's letter said. It was his formal acceptance of the letter of resignation read to Council Monday night, to take effect Jan. 12.

The text of the mayor's letter:

"It is with profound regret that I accept your resignation effective Jan. 12, 1959, as tendered in your letter of Dec. 15.

"When you came here as director of service - safety you undertook an exceedingly difficult and bound - to - be unpopular job. Only a man of your rare talents, experience and faith could have made the progress that you did despite determined opposition.

"Your success and the gains you have made for the city will make your successor's job immeasurably easier. You have gotten this

Pottery Wage Talks Planned In Early April

Union And Concerns Select Pittsburgh As Site Of Conference

Pottery industry wage negotiations will be held in Pittsburgh "in early April," the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today, adding that it will seek "a substantial wage increase, proper fringe benefits and clarification of the vacation and layoff clauses now in effect."

The Brotherhood's position on the pending general conference with the U. S. Potters Association was explained in The Potters Herald, the official union newspaper.

The first revelation that the IBOP had requested reopening of the wage agreement came Dec. 10 in the report of the labor committee presented to the USPA at its 80th annual meeting in Pittsburgh. However, there was no mention of the conference city or the date, except that the meeting would be "not later than April."

The present wage agreement expires Oct. 1, 1959. It was negotiated in September 1957 in Atlantic City.

The IBOP said the request for contract reopening was filed because of "numerous petitions received by the Executive Board from affiliated unions. . ." It added that "international officials as well as the great majority of the membership are mindful of the fact that no other international

Stores Set Late Hours On 3 Successive Nights

A boon to last - minute Christmas shoppers, East Liverpool stores will remain open until 8:30 p. m. on the next three successive business days — Saturday, Monday and Tuesday.

The extended hours mark the conclusion of a holiday schedule put into effect before Thanksgiving by the East Liverpool Merchants Association. The stores have been open late on each Monday and Thursday in the gift-shopping season, also skipping the usual noon closing on Wednesdays.

The stores will close as usual at 5 p. m. Wednesday to allow personnel to spend Christmas Eve with their families.

Area School Dispute Aired

Hillcrest And County Board Groups Heard

Arguments for and against merger of the Hillcrest area to Wellsville School district were presented to a special committee of the State Department of Education Thursday afternoon at Columbus.

The five-member committee will report within 30 days to E. E. Holt, state director of education, and a final decision may be taken by the State Board of Education in January.

Paul Morton, assistant director of education, headed the special committee which reviewed the petition proposal in a 2½-hour meeting with county representatives at the State Department Building.

Paul Talbott, Hugh Nile and Charles Glass represented the Hillcrest district, formerly part of the old Yellow Creek Local which has been consolidated into the new Southern Local District.

Morton said the committee's recommendation will be presented to Holt, who will then make his recommendation to the board.

Review Plays Santa For Newsboys

As is its custom each Christmas, The Review again will play Santa to the many newsboys who deliver its paper daily to readers in the tri-state district.

As their present from the newspaper, some 200 youngsters will receive their papers free tomorrow. The 5 cents they collect from each Saturday paper will go into their own pockets.

The newsboys play a vital part in the everyday operation of The Review and we hope you will join with us in helping to make their Christmas a merrier one by answering the door when they knock.

The picture at the right is symbolic of the many bundles that will be passed out free on Saturday. Taking part are two carriers, James Williamson, left, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Williamson, 737 Sophia St., and Gregory Talbott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Talbott, 1548 Globe St.

County School Bus Accident Record Cited By State Patrol

Columbiana County, which ranked fifth in Ohio in 1957-58 in the number of school bus accidents, bids fair to hold a similar poor record this year, State Highway Patrol officials report.

Since September, there have been 10 school bus mishaps, including one child killed.

Last year 15 school bus mishaps were reported for the whole nine months of the school year, the patrol said. The county ranked fifth among counties last year, and the only counties with worse records were those with large metropolitan areas, officers said.

The county actually ranked first in the number of such accidents for counties of similar size, the patrol added.

Of the 10 accidents, 3 occurred in September, 2 in October, one in November and 4 so far this month. There were seven property damage accidents only, two injury accidents and one fatal.

A total of 25 children were hurt, most of them in the mishap near East Palestine in which a boy was killed when a stopped bus was hit by a truck.

The patrol said in the 10 accidents, the fault lay about half and half with the bus drivers and the other drivers. The major cause was speed in excess of safe for road conditions. Drivers were unable to halt for stopped buses or were otherwise traveling too fast to halt in other instances.

Three school bus drivers were cited for failure to yield the right-of-way.

The patrol urged extreme care on the part of all drivers to prevent the growing number of school bus accidents.

Coach Max Coley's San Jose State freshman football team won six of seven games during 1958.

Board Delays Director's Bid On Job Status

The Youngstown Civil Service Commission Thursday afternoon deferred until Jan. 6 its decision on the application of Safety - Service Director Dan Maggianetti for reinstatement on the Youngstown police force, which he left early this year to take the East Liverpool post.

Maggianetti, who has submitted his resignation here effective Jan. 12, filed the application Tuesday to return to the Youngstown department. He held lieutenant's rank and had completed 20 years' service before resigning in January.

The commission ruled yesterday, however, that Maggianetti must start at patrolman's rank if he returns to the Youngstown department. It held that a man relinquishes his rank and seniority when he resigns, then asks reinstatement.

Maggianetti said Wednesday that his application was "a matter of routine," filed in the event he decides to return to the Youngstown force. The fact he filed the application does not mean he eventually will go back to police work, he added.

The lieutenant's post that Maggianetti resigned still is vacant. When he first took the East Liverpool post, he was allowed a six-month leave of absence from the force. At the end of the six months, he sought no extension of the leave and handed in his resignation.

Meanwhile, a sergeant who was at the top of the eligibility list for the lieutenant's post filed a court action challenging the commission's right to allow the lieutenancy to remain vacant during the leave of absence. The case is scheduled to be heard Monday in Mahoning County Common Pleas Court.

unions these days are writing contracts without some provision embodied to automatically improve the basic wage rates and benefits at the end of each fiscal year."

The IBOP indicated it also will fight for revision of the so-called "division of work" clause, which it said was inserted in the wage agreement in 1949. The union said the clause allows management to divide working hours each week "to a point as low as the maximum unemployment benefits . . ." The union said 22 meetings were held with USPA officials in the last year seeking to remove the clause.

Skidding Auto Blamed In Blackmore St. Crash

A skid was blamed for a crash Thursday at 3:45 p. m. that damaged two autos at Blackmore St. and Richardson Ave.

The mishap involved a 1954 sedan driven by Robert Marshall, 19, of 307 Carolina Ave. and a 1950 coupe operated by Edward L. Burns, 17, of Richardson Ave. Burns was making a turn off Blackmore onto Richardson when his car skidded, police said.

Meanwhile, Joseph Wolf, 56, of R. D. 2 told police the left rear fender of his 1958 model truck was damaged in a mishap Thursday at 4:20 p. m. on the A. & P. Supermarket parking lot. He said his halted vehicle was hit by an auto, but the other driver pulled away. The license number he furnished police was traced to an Irondale man.

Children Of Auxiliary And VFW Will Be Feted

A Christmas party for children of post and auxiliary members of Wellsville Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9285 will be held Sunday from 3 to 6 p. m. at its home.

About 200 children are expected to receive treats from Santa Claus. Movies will be shown. Parents are expected to accompany their children.

Final plans for the party were completed Wednesday evening during a meeting of the post. Kenneth Carter is commander and Mrs. Lillie F. Boggs is auxiliary president.

8-12 Low Due In Area In New Frigid Wave

A new cold wave is a'comin' and if it lasts through Thursday, as expected, then Santa will have to wear "long johns" under his red costume for his Christmas trip.

And he may have to travel by car instead of sleigh as only snow flurries are forecast, although there may be a quarter- or half-inch fall Tuesday—hardly enough to show reindeer tracks.

The long-range forecast indicates temperatures will be 10 to 14 degrees below normal through Wednesday with a frigid low of 8 to 12 tonight.

With much colder predicted for Saturday, the weatherman was preparing an appropriate welcome for winter officially arriving Sunday, and ending one of the coldest autumn seasons in years.

The cold wave will see a sharp drop in temperature this afternoon after an abnormal high of 40 to 44 degrees. It will be cloudy and windy as the mercury starts dropping, bringing a few snow flurries tonight.

School Club Displays Pottery Bowl Trophy

A pottery bowl to be the new Chester-Newell high school football trophy sponsored by the Chester Key Club was displayed at a meeting of the club Thursday at the high school.

The bowl, decorated with gold and given by the Harker Pottery Co., will be inscribed with the scores of the football games between the two schools.

Plans were made for sponsoring a dance at the school April 10. Reid Calcott, vice president, was in charge. The next meeting will be Jan. 8.

Rail Figure Claimed

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Carl Fox, 82, general solicitor of the Gulf, Mobile & Ohio Railroad Co. since 1940, died Thursday after a short illness. He joined the legal staff of the old Mobile & Ohio Railroad in 1912 and had been with the line and its successor since.

135 At Programs Held By Granges

Some 135 attended the Christmas programs of two Wellsville area Granges Thursday night.

Approximately 100 attended the Yellow Creek Grange affair which included a play, "Too Much Christmas," and a pageant, "The Holy Nativity."

A treat was distributed by the home economics committee headed by Mrs. Martha Reight. Mrs. Ellen Forbes, lecturer, was in charge of the program.

The next meeting will be Jan. 1.

Carol singing and a gift exchange highlighted the program of the Highlandtown Grange. About 35 attended.

The singing was led by Mrs. Catherine Leatherberry, lecturer, and Santa distributed a treat to children.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Agnes McKenzie and the home economics committee.

The next meeting will be Jan. 8.

Children Entertained By Midland Rotarians

About 27 children of Midland Rotary Club members attended a Christmas party given by the club Thursday evening at Larry's Restaurant.

Luncheon was served and Santa handed out treats. James Migliore was program chairman.

Rotary Ann Night, with wives as guests, will be observed Jan. 8 at the Presbyterian Church.

Cost Is High, But Dividends Result

Chester Council has taken the first concrete step toward financing the community's share of a sewage disposal plant required under the Ohio Valley Sanitation Compact.

Wednesday night it authorized legislation providing for a rate ordinance which calls for a fee of 110 per cent on water bills.

The reverberations probably will be loud and long. A 110 per cent increase in water and sewage payments is quite a price to pay for a clean river, as many East Liverpool residents—already paying 120 per cent on their water blls—will agree.

But reverberations or no reverberations, the plant must be built, with the burden to the individual consumer a heavy one despite federal aid due later. Many other valley communities can extend sympathy to Chester on the cost, but can offer no way out.

It boils down to the fact that folks along the river finally find themselves forced to pay for necessary purification programs which have been shunted aside for so many years.

Studies of pollution of the Ohio River date back to 1913, all placing emphasis on the constantly increasing corruption of the water that serves millions of homes in the watershed.

By 1940 the river water was being poisoned faster than mechanical means could purify it, posing a serious threat to the health of valley residents and a costly burden to industries to which clean water is vital.

States in the watershed finally agreed upon a Ohio Valley Sanitation Compact which required all cities and plants along the river and its tributaries to provide treatment facilities. Since then, through cooperation and legal pressure from the pollution control authorities, waste disposal systems have been built up and down the valley, gradually reducing the contamination problem.

Population growth and steady industrial expansion were the factors which created the pollution crisis in the first place. And the faster the pollution is curbed now the faster will be continued expansion.

When each community and industry involved complies with the sanitation pact, not only will health matters be improved, drinking water made more tasteful and fish given a chance to live, but water treatment costs will decline to both municipalities and industries.

And there will be added, through the appeal of clean, fresh water, a further incentive for new industry to locate along the river, adding to the growing stature of the Ohio Valley as a key economic area in the United States.

The investment in a sewage disposal plant is a costly one, but the returns, though not always tangible without considered thinking, are many in the form of health and progress.

Kremlin Can See The Evidence, Too

While there still is time to understand what makes the government of the Soviet Union afraid of the resurgent power of West Germany, estimates of military strength in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization should be looked at objectively.

In the 12 years since the end of World War II, the German economy has come back far enough to make West Germany the third strongest NATO member — ranking after Britain and the United States.

In the not-too-distant future, West Germany may be expected to move ahead of Britain. France is out of the running as a major power status is concerned. Its military strength has been sapped by the stalemate in Algeria.

No other power in Europe is potentially strong enough to head off the Germans, once they have had time to organize their amazing resources of ingenuity and thoroughness. This is precisely what the Kremlin is aware of in the contrast between West Germany and East Germany. It is what rankles the Communists about the use of Berlin — a hundred miles inside the Russian zone — as a showcase for West German progress.

To the extent that the Western Allies have contributed to the progress and even to the extent they have not discouraged it, the Kremlin can argue with sound logic that victory over Germany in World War II has been turned into a new military threat against Russia.

This seems preposterous to the United States — a mark of Russian obstructionism. And it may well be motivated by the intent to obstruct. But it seemed preposterous to the United States when Germany's neighbors looked at it apprehensively after World War I, while it was staging the recovery that enabled it to challenge the world in 1939.

The revelation that West Germany now is NATO's third power comes at an inopportune time. The Kremlin can see the evidence, too. It has argued that the Western Allies are hoping to use Germany against the Soviet Union. It has argued that the security of Europe depends on preventing a resurgence of Germany's ability to wage war.

The rebuttal to its argument is not likely to be convincing in the light of the evidence, that the Kremlin is at closer grips with reality than the Western Allies.

40 Per Cent More Ice Cubes

The International Geophysical Year has dropped out of the news, though it more than came up to the high expectations of what could be learned if scientists and observers throughout the world pooled their knowledge.

In approximately 18 months they learned, for example, that the earth is covered with more ice and snow than previously had been estimated. Instead of 3,240,000 cubes of a mile in each dimension, there are 4,500,000 cubic miles of frozen matter.

They learned there is twice as much precipitation in the Arctic as there is in the Antarctic. They discovered that Antarctica is not a solid mass but a network of islands and mountain chains. They found three major ocean currents and vast mineral deposits in the Pacific Ocean.

In 1956, when IGY was still in the planning stage, a project to launch an artificial satellite was a special focus of interest. The United States had made it known in 1955 it was planning to go ahead with the idea, which had been in the exploratory stage since early postwar days.

Other nations said they were interested, too. The Soviet Union let it be known it had a special interest in the idea and would make a major project of it. Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan also showed interest.

But as it happened, the Soviet Union was first to carry out its project successfully, with results that proved deeply disturbing to international confidence and to the Geophysical Year, itself. What had been scheduled as one detail of the show turned into an obsession about rocket thrust.

In the long view, however, this may well be forgotten when future generations evaluate the first IGY. The hope of permanent sharing of knowledge about the earth no longer seems far-fetched. There is talk of a similar project in medical research.

In a quiet way among scientists there was more amicability during IGY than bickering politicians and sword - rattling militarists would have thought possible while exchanging recriminations and insults.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

VIRGINIA AND THE SALESGIRL

Dear Friend: I am eight years old. Some of my friends say there is no Santa Claus. Papa and mommer say a department store salesgirl should know. Virginia.

YOUR LITTLE FRIENDS are mistaken. Take it from me and all my associates. Fifty million sales girls can't be wrong. If there ain't no Santa how come I ache all over?

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as my flat feet and backache exist.

Your little friends might as well tell a letter carrier there is no Santa Claus. He exists in the hearts and minds of 150 million Americans, so who am I to argue?

Not believe in Santa? You might as well not believe in fallen arches, nervous breakdowns, and arguments with floorwalkers and customers.

Your friends might watch all the chimneys on Christmas Eve, but if they did not see Santa it would prove nothing. They would do better watching salesgirls.

They don't see Santa, but all those guys in red suits with their whiskers on crooked must be representing him.

YOU MIGHT AS WELL say, Virginia, that because you have never seen Mary Martin there is no Peter Pan.

Your little friends may tell you there is no Prince Charming, as in the Cinderella fairy tale but if that is so how come so many girls fight their way to balls and dances. They do not say there is no Arthur Murray just because they never met him.

No Santa! A thousand years from now he will continue to be the big man all through Yuletide. And he will feel no older than any salesgirl. I must have lived 999 years in the last 10 days.

I would quit, Virginia, if I did not want to do my big to make glad the heart of childhood. Tell your little friends I know more about Santa than they ever will. Your pop and mom were smart in telling you to take it up with me.

BACK HOME STUFF. Hillhouse and Boardman High Schools, where we went as a kid, are no more. The bulldozers and steamshovels got 'em. Webster Grammar at York and George Street, where "Jack" Lewis presided as principal and kept rigid discipline, using a strap when necessary, is gone with the wind, too.

He looked like Robert E. Lee and when he opened the desk drawer, took out a strap, and said, "Hold out your hand," and let you have 20 whacks, he had the effect of one of Lee's best regiments. We got it often in the age when nobody thought discipline was bad for kids.

Few youngsters dreamt of complaining to parents, as it was a day when grownups felt that if their offspring got a paddling he deserved it.

'Let Me Take You Away From All This'

Ike Eyes Labor Political Curb

By Victor Riesel

In a series of unpublicized, private conversations with his avowedly conservative advisers, President Eisenhower has been discussing possible laws which could throw the brakes on labor's streamlined political machine.

Victor Riesel

Whatever the President decides will show up sharply in the special labor message he will send to Congress late in January or early February.

From out of these conferences comes word that he is disturbed by the pile-driving success of labor's political forces and generalship.

The President knows adroit tacticians when he sees them. And their smash - through in states with 100 years of traditional Republican victories has startled him.

But he has not decided whether he will push for laws which would turn a government key on labor's treasuries and also prevent the unions from using their headquarters, manpower, phones and business agents in the 1960 election.

AMONG THOSE with whom the President has talked in off-the-record ssesions is Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield — certainly one of the Republican party's most influential strategists.

The postmaster, traditionally the tactical general of the party in power, wants the President's stamp of approval on a series of laws which would take labor out of politics — and out of a lot of other activities too.

In one of their most recent talks, it was learned, the postmaster indicated that he would become a political lightning rod and draw labor's fire with public proposals that some tough laws be passed. The President's reply is unavailable. But the postmaster general made such a speech.

This he unleashed recently before 3,000 delighted delegates to the National Assn. of Manufacturers' annual industrial congress. The NAM now is helping distribute "hundreds of thousands" of copies of the talk. And this is a speech with a built-in sledge hammer, for Mr. Summerfield says in part:

"I feel . . . deeply about the political onrush of the organized part of American labor, gathered up in phalanx, its millions of dollars and thousands of trained political manipulators drawn up in battle formation to seize control over our governmental processes. . . .

"I THINK it is high time that the American people demand that the political activity of organized labor be brought within reasonable bounds and clearly governed by law — just as the political activity of all other individuals and groups in this nation are governed by law.

"I think it is absolutely un-American for labor bosses to be permitted to spend union dues in political efforts that are often in direct opposition to what the dues-paying union member himself wants. This must be corrected by law."

There is every reason to believe that President Eisenhower was aware of the contents of Mr. Summerfield's speech before it was made. There has been no repudiation of it.

It was this speech which moved AFL-CIO President George Meany to attack Mr. Summerfield and threaten to launch a third party.

There is more to the deluging of America's executive suites with copies of the Summerfield speech than is apparent.

THE POSTMASTER and his supporters want to prove to the President that their attitude is reflected by business people and some of the public, too, if possible.

They hope, in turn, that the White House will be swamped with demands for union curbing laws.

For standing against Summerfield during Cabinet discussions is a one-man phalanx — Secretary of Labor James Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell has not yet seen the President alone. But he has been making himself heard in conferences with Vice President Richard Nixon, who in this battle is bucking the conservative bloc.

So, if you've got an odd dollar, you can place it safely on the Mitchell-Nixon group in the Cabinet. They're backing the same proposals the President sent up last year to crush the rackets and to safeguard union democracy — no easier, no tougher proposals.

Here, too, you've a preview of the in-fighting at the 1960 GOP nominating convention.

More Power Politics

By Raymond Moley

A conflict much more intense and widespread than the Hells Canyon controversy is rising in the Northwest.

Again it seems to be a basic issue between a broad invasion of resource development, notably hydroelectric operations, by the federal government and the policy initiated by the Eisenhower administration five years ago — that of partnership among local agencies, private companies, and the federal government.

A good many years ago, the Army Engineers prepared and submitted a master plan for the development of the Columbia River and its tributaries.

This report is known familiarly as "308." In 1949 a revision of that plan was prepared and submitted to Congress.

This report is in eight volumes which occupy 18 inches on my shelves. It is replete with descriptive material, statistics, maps, and the like.

IT IS A MOST illuminating and comprehensive treatment of the multitudnous human uses that are possible from the control of water in the agricultural and industrial activities of a great and growing section of the country.

Now the Army Engineers have produced a further revision, equally comprehensive, which takes into account the many public and private developments in the past nine years.

At the same time, Sen. Neuberger has prepared a bill for the consideration of the new Congress for the creation of a "Columbia River Development Corporation."

His bill (S. 3114) would create an agency which, according to Neuberger, would have "the responsibility for and means of supplying the electricity needs of all power consumers and industries in the region who may request it."

The bill now under consideration is a somewhat revised edition of bills introduced in the last Congress on which there were hearings in May and June.

Regional hearings were held by Neuberger in various places in the Northwest earlier this month.

This proposal, while considerably different in some details, is implicitly a new version of a plan for a Columbia Valley Administration sponsored by the Interior Department during the Truman administration.

THERE WAS a long fight then, and the project died. That proposal was to a large extent modeled after the TVA and would have set up a sort of super government over the states in the Columbia Valley.

The idea has never died as an objective of public power politicians. Hence, the bill has substantially revived the old fight.

This conflict, which will be bitter and protracted, will center about the differences in the new version of the Army-revised "308" and the new plan for a valley corporation.

Sen. Morse has been in an epistolatory brawl with his colleague and former friend Neuberger. Never have two United States senators so thoroughly laundered linen in public since ante-bellum days.

But in their opposition to the plans of the Army Engineers they are joined as never before.

Water in this case seems to be much thicker than bad blood between them. Both have attacked this scientific study by an agency which has always kept itself free from political entanglements.

All of which promises that politics in the Northwest will not be in recess between elections.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO —Miss Brena Parker of Chester was appointed elementary supervisor in the East Liverpool schools for a four-month period.

An epidemic of influenza swept Rogers, forcing the closing of school.

Members of the board of education were guests of the home economics department of the high school at a chicken dinner.

TWENTY YEARS AGO —A budget setting the estimated needs for 1939 at $7,265 was approved by the board of health.

R. L. Cawood was reappointed as a trustee of the city sinking fund for a four-year term.

All records for Christmas mail were shattered at the East Liverpool postoffice when 68,000 pieces passed through the canceling machine.

TEN YEARS AGO —Hancock School Supt. A. L. Rabenstein of Chester attended a state superintendents' meeting at Charleston.

Some 146 physical examinations of school children were conducted by the school health department during November.

Dulles' Victories

Berlin Crisis Holds Threat Of War

Why did Premier Khrushchev start a crisis over Berlin? Why does he carry his nation to the brink of war?

David Lawrence

The mystery has not yet been solved, and it may take a flat warning to the Soviet premier — that force will be used by the West to bring a showdown.

Many people, of course, have been assuming that it's all a Soviet bluff and that no war could possibly ensue.

History tells us that such wishful thinking is often wrong and that when war is least expected—after everyone assumes it isn't coming — something untoward happens and really forces the final crisis for everybody. Up to the day World War II broke out, there were confident expressions abroad that it just couldn't and wouldn't happen.

Most observers today rationalize that war would be too horrible for anybody deliberately to start. But with troops and nuclear weapons actually mobilized on a war basis by both sides in the vicinity of Berlin, a tragic incident could be precipitated at any moment.

SECRETARY DULLES has just said to the NATO Council in Paris "I am quite certain the Soviet Union will not risk war over Berlin. Therefore we can proceed with confidence."

But it's Mr. Khrushchev's game to make the western allies think he will stop at nothing to get them out of Berlin.

For several weeks now the inside talk among high governmental officials in Washington and in United Nations circles in New York has emphasized one comment: "The Soviets are getting tougher than ever before."

The technique of toughness is a familiar one in diplomacy. Dictatorships use it shrewdly as a means of bargaining. It is not at all risky to be tough with democracies — they are resilient to the influences of public opinion which, wishing to avoid war at all costs, gives the impression of being willing to negotiate almost everything. This often implies a possible surrender.

One of the reasons why Secretary of State Dulles is so unpopular with the appeasers and peace-at-any-price exponents is that, through a lifetime of experience in diplomacy, he knows softness is dangerous and, in the end, would bring on the very war that everyone wanted to prevent.

MR. DULLES will be remembered in history as the "man with guts" who stood up to the Communists everywhere. He was jumped upon a few months ago by the timid and the partisanly political when he stood up courageously to the Communists in the Far East, refusing to be bluffed on the Quemoy-Matsu episode.

Events since have proved he was right. The Communists didn't dare to precipitate a Far Eastern war. Little is being said now of the Dulles triumph in that part of the world, but it is the significant happening of the year 1958 in the international field.

It is worth noting, incidentally, that some of the same Democratic senators who could not understand what Quemoy meant as a symbol of freedom in the Far East are today saying with respect to Berlin that it cannot be surrendered because it is a symbol of freedom to Western Germany.

Berlin is 100 miles within the Iron Curtain as contrasted with the few miles that Quemoy lies off the Red China coast. Almost every word being said generally now for holding Berlin was being said by the President and Secretary Dulles as an argument for holding on to Quemoy because of its importance to the cause of the Chinese Nationalists.

Mr. Dulles is confident that, if the West maintains a firm policy with respect to Berlin, the Communists will be dissuaded from precipitating a general war.

Everyone here hopes he will be proved right, but the world knows little of what is back of the Khrushchev move and just what strategy he has in mind.

'Righters' Misinformed

By Ralph McGill

Now and then one of the more antiquated of the extreme states rights tribes within the Democratic party will beat his breast like a Tarzan and demand a return to the philosophy of Jefferson and Jackson.

And this is odd. Jefferson made it very plain, in his great message to the Congress in 1806, that he would not forever keep the nation in the strait-jacket of the original constitutional restraints.

Jefferson emphasized that to him the Constitution was not a fetish to be worshiped. Those were his words. He said it should not be made sacrosanct against change. It was, he said, an instrument for service to the nation, to be changed when new conditions demanded change in the interest of progress.

And Andrew Jackson, when John C. Calhoun attempted the policy of interposition and invoked states rights, informed him the Union and its sovereignty would be preserved if he had to send 50,000 troops there to do it and arrest and hang Calhoun as a traitor.

JEFFERSON WAS no standpatter. And no one ever suggested such about Old Hickory.

Gov. Le Roy Collins of Florida currently seems to be the one Southern governor who is talking sense to the people on the subject of states rights.

"There is much talk these days," he said in a recent speech, "about 'states rights.' The term seems to have a variety of meanings, depending on who is doing the talking. I believe," he continued, "there are areas of service where the states should have the full responsibility, and that it would be a good thing for the country if the governmental domains of the states and the national government were more clearly delineated. This, however, can never be easy to accomplish."

There followed these pertinent and bold paragraphs.

"So when we think of 'states' rights' we should bear in mind that the paramount American democratic concern historically has been for the rights of people rather than the rights of government, whether national or state. And I submit that the measure of worth of any level of American government is the degree to which it approaches that goal. . . .

"Just as it should not meddle where individuals or private interests are doing the job well, so should government never hesitate to act boldly and imaginatively in those fields where individuals are unable or unwilling to get the necessary job done. . . .

"GOVERNMENT is the people's business. As such, it must be dedicated to the public interest. And the public interest can never be measured by the sum total of the special interests.

"Government should be a dynamic and creative force in our society, not a disinterested bystander or a blind referee or a passive status-quo caretaker, for the American people will always be a dynamic people with ever-changing needs."

Gov. Collins noted that the Joint State - Federal Action Committee, created by the President in an effort to return projects to the states, had found it impossible to unscramble the omelet of existing joint federal-state programs.

The recommendations by the committee of programs to be returned to the states constitute less than two one-hundredths of 1 per cent of the money now expended by the national government in support of state and local services.

We are faced, as Gov. Collins said, with the burden of rundown and neglected facilities due to failure of state government in past years to face up to responsibilities.

We also face a second problem? How to provide facilities to accommodate the needs of today's population. These are two staggering problems.

The cry of states rights by those whose states have failed in their responsibilities to the people is less and less valid.

Letter To Editor

I hate to see Mr. Maggianettl quit as safety-service director, just about the time the city was building up through the help of him and the mayor.

Our city was in bad shape until Lawrence got into office and appointed the safety-service director. You'll see that in about six months all they have done for the city will be undone.

We will miss the police protection and many of the school guards.

It is a shame the voters passed up a good thing for the betterment of their homes and the children. The tax that was put on the voters wasn't much. I know they are going to regret repeal of the tax before long.

Just watch our streets and other projects go down. The people then will wish they had the director back. I hate to see him go. I think the city had a wonderful man in there.

Before closing, I want to wish Mr. Lawrence, Mr. Maggianetti and all of our police a merry Christmas.

Gain Reported In Yule Sales

1st December Week Tops 1957's Figure

Bearing out national predictions that gift buying for Christmas 1958 will set a new record, sales tax collections in Columbiana County for the first week of December showed a $2,313 gain over the same period in 1957.

The collections were $55,906 in the week ending Dec. 6, against $53,213 in the same week of last year, according to a report issued today at Columbus by State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy.

Columbiana was one of the 46 counties that showed gains for the week, out of a total of 88, according to Tracy. It was the first week of the current fiscal year the statewide receipts topped $5 million.

Columbiana County's collections total $756,105 since the start of the fiscal year July 1, a decline of $105,213 from the $861,318 shown at the same time in 1957, Tracy said.

The report showed the county's December business is well ahead of the balance of the state. On a statewide basis, collections in the first week of December were off 4.8 per cent from the same time last year. On a fiscal year basis, the state collections stand 7.09 per cent behind the same period of 1957.

Highest Award To Intermediates

3 Girl Scouts Receive Curved Bar

Marjorie, 13, resides with her mother, Mrs. Mary Hughey, and grandmother, Mrs. Sophia Myers, 1839 Ohio Ave., and Janet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Birch of Wells Hollow Rd., Wellsville. Both have been in scouting for six years, starting with Brownie Troop 42.

Marjorie attends the eighth grade of East Junior High School, is on the Student Council, sings in the school choir, is a member of the YMCA and attends the Boyce Methodist Sunday School. She has 14 badges, including first class.

Janet, also 13, attends the eighth grade of Fairview School at Hillcrest in Yellow Creek Township, is on the Student Council, is captain of the cheerleaders and belongs to the Juvenile Grange of Yellow Creek Grange. She attends the Bradshaw Ave. Church of Christ.

She, too, has 14 badges, including first class, and has the Junior Red Cross life saving award.

Donna, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sillence, 1575 Cleveland Ave., started scouting in Brownie Troop 35. She is a student in the eighth grade of East Junior High School and plays in the school band and orchestra. Donna also has her first class badge. She is a member of the Sunday School of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church.

Darlene Long read the Christmas Scripture from Luke 2. Pledge to the flag was led by Linda Long, followed by the law and promises by Janet Clutter. Prayer was offered by Elmer Ralston.

Mrs. Hughey and Mrs. Krepps invested new troop mothers, Mrs. Wanda Birch, Mrs. Helen Adams and Mrs. Dorothy Robinson.

First class badges were awarded to Marjorie Hughey, Janet Birch and Darlene Long and second class to Linda Ralston, Linda Long, Sondra Krepps and Kay Lee Smit.

Mrs. Dorothy Peters, leader of Troop 22, led the singing of scout songs and Christmas carols.

Gifts were presented Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. Charles Waggoner for her assistance in building the outdoor furniture the troop will use for camping.

Corsages were presented to the mothers and other guests.

The buffet table was centered with a pine and candle arrangement.

Lunch was served by the troop committee, Mrs. Florence Buchanan, Mrs. Helen Adams, Mrs. Wanda Birch and Mrs. Dorothy Robinson.

Leaders of the troop are Mrs. Hughey, Mrs. Helen Krepps and Mrs. Thelma Surgeon.

The troop will meet Jan. 8 at the Boyce Auditorium.

or thefts over a period of about a year. The size of the thefts increased, however, over the last three or four months, the lieutenant quoted Schultz.

Schultz became a suspect because he was seen in the hospital "acting suspiciously" after he went off duty last Friday midnight, the lieutenant said. About 4:45 a. m., a noise was heard in the recovery room, apparently the sound of the cabinet door being forced open, he related.

When a hospital employe looked in, she saw Schultz standing near the drug cabinet, on which the door was open, he added. Later, it was discovered that drugs were missing from the cabinet.

The narcotics were recovered when Schultz was arrested, Lt. Boso said. The affidavit filed in court said they included 22 quarter-grain morphine sulfate tablets, 22 more morphine sulfate tablets of one - sixth grain, 12 half-grain paparierine ampules and 12 one-grain ampules of the same drug. 6 demerol ampules and 3 nisentil ampules.

Schultz has been employed at the hospital four years, first as a handyman and the last three years as a boiler fireman, police said.

The starfish, so the National Geographic Society reports, is not a fish at all. It is an Echinodermata phylum.

In 1758, the province of New Jersey established what is believed to be the first Indian reservation in America—a 3,284-acre tract set aside in Burlington county for the Lenni Lenape tribe.

New Library Books Include Pro-Football, Racing Themes

Miss Frances Jones, librarian, said new acquisitions at the Carnegie Public Library include a book by a veteran sports writer, Joe King, who has just written a dramatic history of professional football called "Inside Pro Football."

Three special sections in the book are by Jonny Lujack, Tom Harmon, and Red Grange. Here is a real tactical lowdown on this increasingly popular sport.

John Tunis writes a critical volume on what is wrong with sports in this country—"The American Way In Sport." As a springboard to what he terms "industrialized sport," he quotes from the Christian Century—"Football has led the American college deeper and deeper into a moral fog in which it is now lost."

Charles Beaumont and William F. Nolan have culled the literature of motor sport to produce a unique volume, "The Omnibus of Speed." Over half of the material has been secured from articles abroad but much of it concerns the history of racing in our own country and its effect on the development of the automobile.

Since the giving of gems is a tradition with many at Christmas, Michael Weinstein's "The World of Jewel Stones" will satisfy curiosity. The author gives the origin of every gem and the technical methods of cutting and setting. When the holiday festivities subside many women will welcome "Pick-Up Needlework," full of ideas for making baby gifts, embroider, applique, braiding, and knitting. Marguerite Kohl, who writes for "Today's Woman," has designed this book for the beginner.

A bit of the ridiculous and the sublime is to be found in two biographies on this week's shelf. George Burchett, a grand master of the skin-deep art, has penned "The Memoirs of a Tattooist." He reports that this is an art which is difficult to do well. When Queen Victoria died in 1901 he had to work until midnight daily for several weeks executing tattoos "In Memory of Our Queen."

The child who figured in "Red Shoes for Nancy" was the victim of a disease of the lymph glands. This took her life at the early age of 14. The poignant story of the indomitable courage and faith she displayed in her last two years is related in "Borrowed Angel" by her mother, Marguerite Hamilton.

A trio of suspense novels will intrigue the vicarious adventurer: "A Game for Living" by Patricia Highsmith, "Beacon In the Night" by Bill Ballinger, and John Blackburn's "The Scent of New Mown Hay."

The next pair of novels do not share a similar setting—since the first deals with Maine and the second with Texas, but both concern the conflicts and alliances of millionaires.

"Juniper Island" is written by a physician, Charles Knickerbocker, who has practiced in Bar Harbor for years. The author of the "The Bone Pickers" is Al Dewlen who is admirably suited to writing about the great state since he was born and educated there and now lives in Amarillo.

For escape via the route of poetry or humorous essay the library recommends Ruth Moore's ballads "Cold as a Dog and the Wind Northeast" and Alexander Rose's "Marriage on the Rocks."

Commissioners Slate Reorganization Jan. 6

NEW CUMBERLAND — Hancock County commissioners will meet Jan. 6 in the Courthouse to re-organize for 1959.

William C. Graham has served as president for the past four years. Officials said that Commissioner Dave N. Thomas of Weirton will in all probability be elected the new president. Lyle Virden of New Cumberland is the third commissioner.

Goldfine's Convicted Of Criminal Contempt

BOSTON (AP) — Industrialist Bernard Goldfine was convicted of criminal contempt today for failure to comply with a federal court order to produce books of the Lebanon Mills, Lebanon, N.H., in connection with a probe of his tax affairs.

U.S. Judge Charles E. Wyzanski Jr. handed down the decision.

The 67-year-old Goldfine was acquitted on two counts regarding books of Lebandale Mills of Lebanon, N. H., and George Moffett and Sons Co., of Plymouth, Mass.

Goldfine's secretary, Miss Mildred Paperman, was convicted of criminal contempt in connection with records of the Strathmore Mills of Boston and the Northfield Mills of Northfield, Vt.

War Vets Urge Salan To Remain In Algeria

ALGIERS (AP) — Gen. Raoul Salan, departing for Paris and a new post, today was besieged by 500 right-wing French war veterans shouting, "Stay with us general, the civilians will betray us."

A group of bemedaled generals, aided by police, finally managed to lead Salan to his car.

Salan, the military commander in Algeria, took over control of the civil administration when right-wing colonists and officers rebelled last May against the Paris government. Premier de Gaulle is making him inspector general of national defense.

Deaths and Funerals

A. L. Weikart Claimed At 76

Ex-Postal Official's Rites Slated Monday

Arthur (Lee) Leland Weikart of Fredericktown, former assistant East Liverpool postmaster, and Masonic leader, died this morning at 3:15 at City Hospital after a 2-year illness. He was 76.

He was born in Signal and started as a substitute clerk at the post office in 1908, becoming superintendent of mails June 1, 1922, and then assistant postmaster Aug, 19, 1934. He retired June 31, 1949.

He was a past master of Riddle Masonic Lodge 315; former commander of Pilgrim Commandery 55, Knights Templar; past commander in chief of the Jefferson Consistory of the Ancient, Accepted Scottish Rite of Steubenville; past master of Keramos Council 95, Royal and Select Masters; past president of the East Liverpool Shrine Club; past high priest of East Liverpool Chapter, 100, Royal Arch Masons, and a member of the Al Koran Shrine of Cleveland, the Lake Erie Consistory of Cleveland and the Royal Order of Scotland. He received the 33rd Degree in Masonry in 1946.

Mr. Weikart also was a member of the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Florence Weikart at home; two sons, Raymond Weikart of Harbor Beach, Mich., and Harlan Weikart of North Olmstead; a step-daughter, Mrs. Dorothy White of Westlake; a brother, Harry Weikart of Damascus and two grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Martin Funeral Home by the Rev. James Gardner. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday afternoon and evening.

Work Was Wasted

ST. ANNE, Ill (AP) — Big Beaver Creek is the workshop of a lot of eager beavers. They built a dam 25 feet wide and about five feet high and backed up water for 1½ miles. The creek drains about 43,000 acres of farm land. A game warden had to dynamite.

200 At Garfield PTA Yule Event

An adult Christmas program was presented when the Garfield Parent - Teacher Association met Wednesday night at the school with some 200 persons attending.

A choir composed of some 12 mothers sang Christmas carols, Mrs. Evelyn Owens sang two solos and Mrs. Mary Brunstetter gave a piano selection.

A high school quartet played four instrumental selections.

Charles Heasley, president, conducted business.

Reports were given by Mrs. Carolyn Woomer, secretary; Mrs. Robert Kidd, treasurer, and Mrs. Richard Smith of the ways and means committee.

The next meeting will be Jan. 13.

Record Player Stolen; Theft Suspect Quizzed

A portable record player valued at $21.95 was stolen sometime between 8:40 and 8:55 Thursday night from the appliance department of the Central Service auto agency on W. 7th St., the firm reported to police.

The blue and white record player carries the trade name "Symphonic Model 1500," police said.

Meanwhile, a 36-year-old East Liverpool woman arrested Thursday night as a suspected shoplifter was being questioned today by the Special Service Bureau. She was taken into custody by Capt. Robert H. Pyle on suspicion of thefts in the Jenny Shop and the Montgomery Ward & Co. store, police said.

Release Due Sunday

NORWALK, Ohio (AP) — The driver of a wrong-way car that was involved in a Nov. 7 headon automobile collision that killed seven persons on the Ohio Turnpike is due for release Sunday from Fisher-Titus Memorial Hospital. Nurses said James H. Hines Jr., 41, of Detroit, sole survivor of the crash, had spent much time reading the Bible. He is recovering from fractures of both arms, a broken knee and other injuries. After leaving the hospital he will be arraigned on seven counts of manslaughter.

County Has No Liquor Arrests For November

No liquor law arrests were made in Columbiana County in November, according to the monthly report of the Ohio Department of Liquor Control.

Throughout the rest of the Canton District of the department, there were 6 raids conducted by agents, 16 arrests made and fines totaling $950 received.

Four illegal stills were confiscated in the Portsmouth area, making a total of 34 seized throughout Ohio this year. Agents need to confiscate only 2 more stills this month to set a new 10-year high in Ohio. In 1949, agents seized 35 stills.

Salineville Club Holds Annual Holiday Dinner

SALINEVILLE — About 60 Ruritan Club members, wives and guests attended the annual Christmas dinner Thursday night at the high school cafeteria at which Walker Irvine was installed as president.

A group of elementary students directed by James Wadowick presented a Yule musical program, "Born In the Manger." Dinner was served by the Band Boosters Club.

Delegates Named By Glenmoor PTA

Lewis Stoddard, president of the Glenmoor Parent - Teacher Association, and Arnold McDowell were named delegates to the Columbiana County PTA Council at a meeting of the Glenmoor group Tuesday night at the school.

Reports were given by Mrs. Alma Cunningham on the ways and means committee, and by Edward Harries, principal, on a recent Civil Defense drill.

The attendance banner was won by the fourth grade. The choir of the Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church sang. The Rev. Robert Tanguy of the church led devotions.

Lunch was served 30 by the fifth grade mothers. The Executive Board will meet Jan. 12. The next meeting of the PTA will be Jan. 20.

Christmas Magic

Sharing the joys of this holiday season brightens the glow of your own Christmas candles, adds a special flavor to your own Christmas dinner.

The more you give away to those in need, the more you have to enjoy—that's the particular magic of this holiday.

On Christmas morning, the knowledge that you have helped to bring the miracle of happiness to others will generate a warm glow in your heart.

The magic of the Star of Hope releases its radiant beams as a benediction upon those who graciously "condescend to men of low estate".

You can help to make "Peace on earth, good will to men" a shining reality by supporting The Salvation Army Christmas Appeal.

Miss Irmgard M. Eden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hermann A. Eden of Jever, Germany, became the bride of Robert A. Weinhardt Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Weinhardt of Elysian Way, on Saturday, Dec. 6, at St. John's Episcopal Church at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Given in marriage by Milo Tobiason, a cousin, the bride wore a cocktail-length gown of ice blue silk taffeta fashioned with a pearl beaded empire waistline.

The Chantilly lace bolero jacket had three-quarter-length sleeves marked with tailored bows and embroidered with pearl motifs. A matching ice blue taffeta pillbox accented with tailored side bows held her shoulder-length veil.

Mrs. Eberhard F. Mamen of Jever, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a red faille empire-style gown and carried a nosegay of white roses and snowdrift pompoms.

William T. Weinhardt attended his brother as best man and ushers were John C. Thompson and Lee R. Horn.

A reception followed in the conservatory of the Roosevelt Hotel with 75 attending.

The bride was educated in Germany and is employed by the Cryovac Co. at Cedar Rapids.

The bridegroom has a bachelor of science degree from Rose Polytechnic Institute at Terra Haute, Ind., and a master's degree from the Wharton Graduate School of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia. He is employed by the Collins Radio Co. of Cedar Rapids.

After a honeymoon to Hollywood, Fla., the couple will reside in Cedar Rapids.

Lutheran Groups' Program Is 'Christmas In Bethlehem'

"Christmas In Bethlehem" was the theme for the program presented by Mrs. A. E. Stoddard for the combined meeting of the Sara, Katherine VonBora and Ruth Circles of United Lutheran Church Women Monday night in the social rooms of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

A lighted star of Bethlehem candle was used for the setting. "A Great and Mighty Wonder" was the opening hymn.

A sketch, "Christmas In January," was presented by Mrs. Kenneth Scott, Mrs. Royd Hodge and Mrs. Harold Bricker.

"Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming" was sung by the group during Mrs. Richard Judge's presentation of a reading, "Christmas In Bethlehem."

Others participating in the sketch were Mrs. William Drane Jr., Mrs. Richard Walker, Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. Edwin Carson. Each carried objects that illustrated their talks.

Mrs. W. T. Wilson and Mrs. Hodge were accompanists.

Mrs. Stoddard spoke as a Moslem social worker who was helped by Lutheran World Relief. She showed rations for one person per week, the allotment for refugees in Bethlehem. She closed by reading the hymn, "From Mary's Song."

Mrs. Alvin Arner, president of the United Lutheran Church Women, extended greetings and presided for business.

Mrs. Kenneth Scott, newly appointed chairman of Christian education, distributed program booklets for 1959. New circle member assignments were made.

Mrs. William Bricker presented the thank - offering and Mrs. Glenn McGaffick the offering for the Zelienople Orphans Home, which were received by Mrs. Stoddard, who gave the prayer.

Mrs. Miller screened slides of church events from 1951 through 1958.

Hostesses were Mrs. William Drane, Mrs. William Drane Jr., Mrs. George Woessner, Mrs. George Spratley, Mrs. Robert Cunningham and Mrs. Francis Maley.

Announcement will be made of the regular circle meetings to be held in January.

Weirton Pair Jailed In Robbery Of Tavern

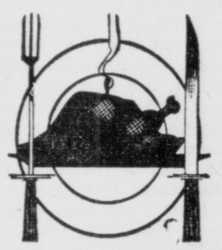

WEIRTON — Two suspects in the robbery of Eli's Tavern were bound over to the January Grand Jury Thursday in Weirton Municipal Court.

Stanley E. Dulaney, 21, was charged with being an accessory before and after the act, and Garry Canady, 18, was accused of breaking and entering. Their bonds were set at $2,000.

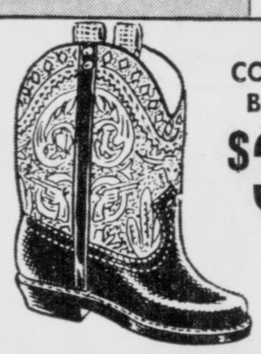

A third youth was released to the custody of William Paolisso, Hancock County probation officer. The boy contended he was 18 when arrested. However, police learned the youth actually is 16. The trio was arrested early Wednesday morning in Steubenville.

Atlas

85 feet long and 10 feet wide, went into orbit.

It is the biggest known man-made object swinging around the globe. Its weight, between 8,700 and 8,800 pounds, triples the 2,919 pounds of Soviet Sputnik III, fired last May 15.

Sputnik III's rocket, variously estimated to weigh between two and five tons, trailed it until being burned up by air friction Dec. 2.

The Atlas' orbit girdles the earth every 100 minutes at altitudes varying between 118 to 625 miles.

Most Americans can see it, glowing like a star, especially at dusk and in the South. Its estimated life aloft is 20 days.

Radio signals for tracking purposes are coming from the giant artificial moon on two frequencies 107.97 megacycles and 107.94 megacycles.

Moonwatchers at El Paso, Tex., were first to report spotting it visually. They reported at 9:30 p.m. that it glowed at 1½ magnitude, just a bit brighter than the stars in the Milky Way.

The Air Force dubbed its satellite Operation Score, after the first letters of the words signal, communications, orbit, relay experiment. These summed up its purposes except for the basic one.

This was to see if the Atlas would fly as faithfully as it did two weeks ago, when it traveled a prescribed 6,325-mile course over the Atlantic.

Of Thursday night's test, the Pentagon said: "Most successful."

But it did much more, as the Pentagon pointed out in a statement: "The entire vehicle achieved an orbit. As such, it is the largest satellite that has been put into orbit by the United States. More importantly, this marks the first time that a high accuracy missile guidance system has been used to steer such a vehicle into its orbital trajectory."

Thus, in a matter of minutes, the United States proved once more that it has a dependable ICBM and also took the wind out of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrshchev's taunts about "lemon-size" U.S. satellites.

There was a novel twist to the launching which sent the Atlas soaring at 17,000 miles an hour. In its nose cone was a unique communications system—and there was speculation that its tape recordings included the voice of Eisenhower.

Newsmen expressed this speculation to Pentagon officials, who would neither confirm nor deny it.

The communications system is part of the 150-pound payload in the rocket's nose cone. It records messages sent to it and, on a command signal later, sends the messages back to earth.

The Atlas weighed 100 tons on the ground. The combined thrust of its three rocket engines at sea level was 359,000 pounds. Once fired, its two booster engines dropped off and what was left, the instrumented carcass and burned-out third engine, went into orbit. Powered flight lasted 4½ minutes.

The spectacular shot drew such comment as this:

Karl Bossart, test director at Convair-Astronautics, which built the Atlas: "Only the beginning. With something else on top of it, the Atlas can reach the Moon or Venus."

Krafft A. Ehricke, assistant to the chief engineer at Convair: "We can put a man in space with the Atlas, with special precautions to keep him alive."

Eisenhower: "This launching constitutes a distinct step forward in space operations. The success opens new opportunities to the United States and all mankind."

Three other satellites are still in space — all American. They include:

The Navy's Vanguard I, a 3¼-pounder launched March 17 and expected to stay up 200 years.

The Army's Explorer I, 30.8 pounds, launched Jan. 31.

Explorer IV, 37.1 pounds, launched July 26. Both Explorers have a five-year life expectancy.

Sputnik III is the only survivor of the satellites Russia has put up.

Only 35 Men Knew About Atlas Launching

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Only 35 men knew that an Atlas missile would be shot into orbit until three hours before the spectacular launching.

"We called the 35 members of The Club," said B. G. MacNabb, a fiery Scot who is operations manager.

"There are 940 fine men working for Convair at the Cape and only three of them knew about the satellite launching—even after the final button was pressed and the missile was launched," MacNabb said.

Among those who had to receive the advance word was the range safety officer, whose duty is to destroy the missile if it strays off course. Crewmen manning tracking stations for tracking the missile had to be notified three hours in advance.

One of the important operations of a regular Atlas shoot is the impact prediction chart at central control. It tells where the missile will land.

Personnel in central control were infuriated when one unidentified crewman stood in front of the chart and blocked the view of observers at a critical moment. It was all part of the act.

Atlas To Be Visible In South U.S. Tonight

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — The Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory says America's mighty Atlas satellite should be visible over the southern parts of the United States tonight.

The Smithsonian said that because of the angle at which it was launched the satellite would travel north almost as far as Cape Hatteras.

John White, observatory public information officer, said the satellite should be much brighter than any previous satellite because of its low point of about 115 miles.

He said it should be clearly visible to the naked eye, looking like a fast moving bright star.

Prestige

its satellite a top life expectancy of 200 years. But Vanguard I was a Lilliputian 3¼ pounds.

On May 15 the Russians tossed up Sputnik III, 2,929 pounds. It's still going.

Yet the American scientific show was coming to life. An atomic sub nosed under the arctic icecap. The Air force and the Army tried rockets that soared a third of the way to the moon. An Atlas zoomed on course for 6,325 miles across the Atlantic.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said the Russians had a missile capable of going 8,700 miles. U. S. officials underscored the word "capable," discounting Communist possession of any such operational weapon for at least two years.

American authorities deny Thursday night's launching was a propaganda move. They said it would carry out important communications experiments.

Atlas is big enough to be seen with the naked eye by the millions in the heavily populated areas of the earth over which it was aimed. And its tape recording playbacks are highly convenient for worldwide rebroadcasting by the Voice of America.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann: I read he recent hassle in your column about tipping and I would like to say I think the whole system of tipping smells to the high heavens.

You must pay at least 75 cents for an ounce of whisky. The swankier places charge $1. There are 26 drinks in a quart. This means anywhere from $10 to $14 profit per quart. Still the bartender expects a tip.

You carry your baggage a block from the parking lot to the hotel. Then you pay $15 a day for a decent room. A bellhop takes your bag to the room, turns on the light, raises the window and expects 50 cents at least.

I say there's enough profit in that room at $15 a day to pay the bellhop a good salary. He shouldn't need a tip.

If anyone does an extra service for me (like running an errand or getting a suit pressed) he has something extra coming. But to soak the public for services they already paid for is unfair.

Restaurant tipping is the worst of all. Why should a girl be paid extra for putting a meal on the table? Patrons aren't expected to go into the kitchen to get their food.

I'd prefer to pay $3 for a meal, instead of $2.50 and have the restaurant pay the waitress a respectable salary. It would make everyone a whole lot happier.—LIVE AND LET LIVE.

More About Tipping

Dear Ann Landers: Thank you for saying a good word in behalf of people who must live on tips. The public doesn't realize how much their gratuities mean to a working man who must feed, clothe and educate a growing family.

My husband is a doorman at a fashionable eating place.

I can't tell you what his salary is because if his boss reads this in the paper and hooks him up in any way with my letter he'll get into trouble. Take my word for it, his base pay is so low it's almost an insult.

People who eat in this restaurant must have plenty of money because the prices are very high.

An extra 50 cents or $1 doesn't mean one thing to them. On a rainy night it's well worth it to be able to jump out of car, under a canopy and not have to worry about parking troubles.

My husband has come home many a night, drenched to the skin. When I ask, "How did you do, honey?" He puts the money on the kitchen table. Many a night it is less than $6.

I think the places who hire these people should pay them a decent wage so they wouldn't have to depend on tips. But until this happens, there is no other way but to rely on the generosity of people who understand the problem.—Thank you for helping, Ann.—A DOORMAN'S WIFE.

Dear "Live and Let Live" and "Doorman's Wife": Interesting that you view the problem from opposite sides, yet you both agree that "the system" is to blame and the solution is decent salaries. I agree wholeheartedly.

Thanks to you (and others who wrote about this subject).

Try Flea Powder

Dear Ann Landers: I'm new in this town, 25 years of age, have a good job, drive a nice car, considered good looking and would like a little help from you.

I don't know any women and it occurred to me that you must get lots of letters from gals who are lonesome and in need of male companionship.

I'm not looking to get serious, you understand, I just want to get acquainted with some chicks who like the same things I like. Namely, dancing, bowling, rollerskating, conversation and, naturally, romance.

Don't tell me to join a church group. I've seen those creeps and every one of them has a crooked hem or a man's haircut. Help—and hurry.—ITCHY.

Dear Itchy: Maybe it's flea powder you need—not girls.

I never put readers in touch with one another through this column. Besides, how can I tell from a letter if the girl has a crooked hem or a man's haircut? Find your own, Bub.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

U.S. Judge Sifts Motion For New Trial For Seven

CLEVELAND (AP) — Federal Judge Paul C. Weick had under advisement today a motion for a new trial for seven persons convicted last January of conspiring to file false non-communist affidavits with the National Labor Relations Board.

The defense concluded its case Thursday.

The seven principals in the case are appealing 18-month prison sentences and fines of $2,500 each. Should Judge Weick uphold the new trial motion, then the U. S. Court of Appeals in Cincinnati would have to remand the case to this district court before his decision could be entered.

All seven persons appealing are free on bond. They are Marie Reed Haug and her husband, Fred, and Hyman Lumer, all of Cleveland; Eric Reinthaler of Willowick; James West and Sam Reed of Chicago; and Andrew Remes of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The new trial motion was based on allegations that the chief government witness in the trial a year ago, Fred L. Gardner, had lied when he said he never was in military service and when he said he was divorced in 1945. Evidence was introduced to show Gardner was absent without leave from the Army in 1926 and that he entered into a common law marriage the year before his divorce in 1946.

Keep In Trim

Susan Hayward Grows More Beautiful

What happens to a movie star when she forsakes Hollywood, goes into semi-retirement and settles for a quiet life in the country? Does she get soft and allow the pounds to sneak on, and then have to reduce like mad when she accepts a screen role too challenging to turn down?

Ida Jean Kain

These thoughts flitted through my mind en route to interview Susan Hayward, who shook the dust of glamorous Hollywood from her shoes to live in the deep South when whe married Eaton Chalkley. It must be all of 15 years since my first interview with Miss Hayward.

I recalled how friendly and eager she was, and I vividly remembered her hair...not red, not gold, more the russet tone of autumn leaves.

THIS ACTRESS has changed, yes. The mature Susan Hayward is even more lovely. Now you see her inner light, and this natural glow is a million watts more powerful than mere surface glamour.

What age does she consider an actress' best age? "Any woman's best age is when she gains insight into humanity and starts to live instead of trying to prove herself." And she added, "That can occur at any age."

The part that lured Susan Hayward back to the movies is the dramatic role of Barbara Graham, the convicted murderess in "I Want To Live." While it was exciting to get back to work, she is now eager to return home to her husband and her 13-year-old twin sons.

"It's wonderful to be away from the constant pressures of Hollywood and to live a more rounded life," this actress emphasized.

In her role of homemaker, does she have to guard against gaining? "Ah, yes. With my enjoyment of food I have to keep close tabs on the scales." Her working weight is 113 pounds—add a plus 5 when she is not working. She is 5 feet 4 with these measurements: bust 36, waist 26, hips 35.

The day the pointer on the scales hits 119 is diet day for Susan Hayward. "It's easy to put on, but tough to get it off...so my top weight is 120 pounds."

THIS ACTRESS eats three meals a day but trims calories. Here is her reducing diet pattern: Breakfast—a half grapefruit, an egg, thin slice of toast, glass of skim milk and coffee. Lunch and dinner are the same— a liberal serving of lean meat, a vegetable, half grapefruit and skim milk or coffee.

Susan Hayward was brought up with good food habits. "We may not have had shoes, but we always had nutritious meals," she commented.

Now that home is a 200 acre farm, horseback riding and walking are her favorite outdoor activities. All in all, this new way of life agrees beautifully with Susan Hayward.

Chiefs Give Precautions For 'Fire-Safe' Christmas

Everyone can have a merry — and fire-safe — Christmas if they will follow suggestions made by Fire Chiefs Charles Bryan of East Liverpool and Robert Lewis of Wellsville.

The two made a dozen suggestions on the hazards of Christmas trees and also offered some precautions for holiday decorations. The tree suggestions include:

1. Choose a tree suited for the place in which it is to be used. If it will be located in a small room, buy a small tree.

2. Keep the tree outside until you are ready to put it up. Occasional spraying with water will help keep it fresh and green.

3. Do not set up the tree too early or keep it too long.

4. When the needles begin to drop off, remove the tree. As the needles become dry and brittle, the tree becomes more dangerous.

5. Set the tree in water or wet sand to keep it from drying out. Replenish the water supply daily.

6. Do not set electric trains or other electric toys to operate under a tree.

7. Be certain your tree lights are in good condition and bear the Underwriters Label.

8. Never leave the tree lights burning when no one is home.

9. Use only flameproof cotton for decorations.

10. Discard all wrappings and boxes immediately after opening presents. Be careful of smoking when unwrapping presents.

11. If the needles around lights become discolored, change the position of the light.

The greatest danger lies in the common "We'll just use it for Christmas" idea, the chiefs said.

If any trouble developed last year, and wasn't corrected, make the corrections now before decorating, they urged.

If the wires on tree or outside lights are frayed or brittle, replace them immediately, they said.

Do not substitute heavier fuses or pennies if fuses blow when tree lights, decorations or other electrical items are in use, they continued. "Blowing" of fuses indicates the circuit is overloaded. Never use fuses larger than 15 amperes for lighting circuits.

It's better to install proper outlets than run wiring under rugs, through doors or over nails.

Lastly, one of the most important suggestions — don't buy toys too advanced for the child's age. A child should be taught the dangers of electrical toys and chemical sets, they warned.

Funeral Set Saturday For Ex-Judge Maxwell

CLARKSBURG (AP) — Funeral services will be held here at 1:30 p. m. Saturday for former State Supreme Court Judge Raymond Maxwell who died at his home in Clarksburg Thursday after an illness. He was 79.

Judge Maxwell was named to the high court by the late Gov. Howard M. Gore in 1928 to fill an unexpired term. Later that year, he was elected to the full 12-year term on the bench.

Small Plane Lost In Clouds Helped By DC6 Airliner

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A United Airlines DC6 with 42 passengers aboard shepherded a single engine plane lost in a bank of clouds to safety late Thursday at Youngstown Municipal Airport.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Sven Persson of Youngstown were in the single-engine Cessna when they ran into the heavy layer of clouds. Both had flying experience but had no instrument training. They were returning from Aspen, Colo.

Persson, flying at 8,000 feet, radioed the Civil Aeronautics Administration (CAA) officer at the Youngstown airport and told of his problem. The officer, Roger Graves, advised Persson that a United airliner was due in the area shortly.

Then Graves diverted all other traffic, including jet planes from the airbase here, to Columbus. He called Capt. Joseph Matuna, the pilot on United Flight 917 from Philadelphia.

Both Persson and Matuna hooked up on the same radio frequency and the big craft gave out compass readings. The Cessna followed down through the two layers of clouds, landing first.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will average 10-14 degrees below normal. Normal high 36 north to 42 south. Normal low 22 north, 25 south. Much colder Saturday and continued cold through Wednesday except for brief warming about Tuesday. Frequent snow flurries and some snow likely about Tuesday with total one-quarter to one-half inch.

Candy was donated by civic organizations and oranges and apples by the tavern operators and Clarence Broomhall of Broomhall's Market. Extra candy treats were distributed at the Hancock County Children's Home.

Area Woman Injured In 3-Way Collision

A district woman was injured in a collision involving two trucks and an auto on the Y. & O. Rd. late Thursday morning, the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

A car driven by Richard Hess, 37, of 4th Ave., LaCroft, skidded into a pickup truck driven by Delores Shasteen, 21, of R. D. 2 and a dump truck operated by Kenneth McKinney, 26, of Wellsville R. D. 2.

The mishap occurred about 11 a. m. two miles west of Route 30.

Officers said Hess, headed west, saw the dump truck making a right turn and tried to stop, losing control and skidding into the oncoming pickup truck and hitting the rear of the dump truck.

The woman was treated by a physician for a collarbone injury. Hess was cited for reckless operation, officers said. The car and pickup truck received considerable damage.

Police Captain Freed In 2nd Extortion Trial

BEAVER — John Gabauer, Rochester police captain, was acquitted Thursday of charges of extortion during a second trial in Beaver County Court.

A new trial had been ordered when the first jury deliberated 14 hours last Friday and could reach no verdict. The extortion charge grew out of a complaint that Gabauer took money in a truck overweight violation.

The court ordered Joseph Shaw, head of the trucking firm, and Gabauer to divide the expenses of the trials.

To Close Air Station

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Columbus, Ohio, Naval Air Station will close down by next June 30. The Navy said the closing is due to a reduction in its operating budget and changing needs of the service. On active duty at the station are 426 naval enlisted men and 44 officers; 60 marine enlisted men and six officers; also, 83 civilians work there.

Nebraska's High Tribunal Orders Killer's Execution

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—The Nebraska Supreme Court today upheld a District Court decision and ordered mass-killer Charles R. Starkweather to die in the electric chair March 27, 1959.

The high court issued its order after review of Starkweather's sentence, an automatic procedure for all death sentences handed down in Nebraska. He originally had been scheduled to die last Wednesday.

Starkweather was convicted of first-degree murder, and murder while in perpetration of robbery, of Robert Jensen, 17, Bennet, Neb., high school student. Jensen fell victim to Starkweather during a killing spree last January in which 10 persons were slain.

Starkweather's sweetheart, Caril Ann Fugate, 15, has been sentenced to life imprisonment for aiding and abetting Starkweather in the murder of Jensen. Caril was his companion on the murder spree.

Missing Airman's Body Still Not Recovered

NEW CUMBERLAND — The Air Force has made no official announcement as to the possible death of Lt. Joseph D. Berardi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berardi of 2nd Ave., who was one of four crew members aboard a jet bomber which exploded and crashed in Tampa Bay in Florida Tuesday night.

However, no survivors were found. One body has been recovered but identification has not been announced.

Divers Thursday were still trying to raise the plane to the surface. The craft is in 17 feet of water. The Tampa Air Force Base said the six-engine medium bomber crashed about 10 minutes after leaving for a training flight.

After grinding dry bread through the fine blade of a food chopper, you'll have to sift it if you want to separate the very fine crumbs from those that are coarser.

Midland Lions Give Children's Home Toys

Toys for the Beaver County Children's Home at New Brighton were turned in at the meeting of the Midland Lions Club Thursday evening at Deramo's Restaurant.

Don Craik, chairman of the boys and girls committee, will deliver the playthings.

A satisfactory report on the club's current sight conservation program project of selling Christmas trees was given by Ernest Lee, chairman. The sale continues until Dec. 24.

Four members of the club will attend a party for the blind of Beaver County Dec. 30 at the Light House at New Brighton.

The Board of Directors will meet Jan. 8. Awards of 100 per cent attendance will be given at the next meeting Jan. 15.

700 Children Expected To Receive Yule Treat

SALINEVILLE — Some 700 youngsters are expected to get treats from Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus Saturday night in the annual holiday fete held by volunteer firemen.

A parade will start at 7:30, featuring Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus on a truck, along with a fire truck. Treats will be given at the fire station afterward.

A Christmas party will be held for children of St. Patrick's Catholic Church Sunday night at 7:30 at the Parish Hall. A musical program will be presented, and Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus will attend.

Reports Received By Health Board

Reports were received at the meeting of the Board of Health Thursday night in the City Hall with Emil Liebschner Jr., chairman presiding.

Dr. E. G. Kuhlman, city health commissioner, gave the monthly report.

Mrs. Jeannette Carpenter, nurse, reported 3 new tuberculosis cases, 21 visits to tuberculosis patients and 40 therapy visits.

Mrs. Leulla Bevan, registrar of vital statistics, reported 139 births in the past month — 67 male and 72 female. There were 62 to East Liverpool parents, 27 to Wellsville, 12 Chester, 9 Newell, nine Midland and the balance from surrounding areas.

She also reported 38 deaths — 25 males, 13 females and 6 children.

Sanitary Inspectors Septimus Cook and John Owen reported 232 inspections and 12 milk samples submitted.

New York Faces Second Weekend Without Papers

NEW YORK (AP)—New Yorkers face a second weekend without nine major city dailies. The 10-day-old newspaper strike seemed likely to continue at least until Monday.

Joint talks between the striking Deliverers' Union and the Publishers Assn. of New York City, broken off last Tuesday, are scheduled to resume Monday afternoon.

Until then, federal mediators will confer separately with the publishers and the deliverers. "If circumstances warrant," the Mediation Service said Thursday, "an earlier joint meeting will be scheduled."

"We want to get back to work," a Publishers' Assn. spokesman said. "We are ready to talk."

Asher Schwartz, Deliverers' Union lawyer, asked Wednesday that negotiations be resumed as soon as possible.

The publishers are holding firm on a $7-a-week wage package, twice turned down by the union membership.

The 4,500-member union has injected issues of hours, holidays and absentee replacements that the publishers say they considered settled in pre-strike bargaining.

The basic wage for deliverers under a contract which expired at midnight Dec. 7 was $103.82 a week.

Firemen And Veterans Will Treat Children

Some 600 Chester youngsters will be guests at the annual Christmas fete sponsored by the American Legion Post 121 and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6450 tonight at 6 at the City Hall auditorium. Santa Claus will distribute treats in the hour-long event.

Santa will ride on a fire truck through Chester Saturday afternoon in the annual treat sponsored by the volunteer firemen. The truck will leave the fire station about 1. Firemen will visit the Hancock County Children's Home afterward.

300 At Yule Program

SALINEVILLE — About 300 attended a Christmas program presented by elementary students Wednesday afternoon at the high school. Songs, skits and recitations comprised the program, along with a musical playlet, "Born In the Manger."

Food Processing Firm Begins Palestine Plant

EAST PALESTINE — Construction has started on a concrete block building for a food processing firm, a new industry transferring from Youngstown and which will employ about 10 when it begins operations in March.

Frankie's Prepared Foods will occupy a one-story structure in the northeast part of town, just east of State Line Rd. near the Kenmar Manufacturing Co., according to an announcement today from Leonard Holman, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

The J. G. Madden & Sons is the contractor for the 70-by-100 foot building in which the firm will process Italian-style foods such as pizza, spaghetti and sauces. The building will also pass government standards for processing meats, officials said.

John Vecchione is president and treasurer of the firm which has been in operation for a number of years. Pat Finelli is vice president.

LaCroft Firemen Plan Treats For Children

Liverpool Township, West, volunteer firemen will distribute Christmas treats to children of the township Saturday afternoon at the fire station in LaCroft, it was announced at a meeting of the firemen Wednesday night.

Santa will be at the station from 2 to 4 p. m., according to Mrs. Rachel Emmerling of the auxiliary, co-sponsor with the firemen.

In other business, conducted by Andy Hester, vice president, members authorized purchase of a battery charger for the fire truck. Firemen also plan to attend a meeting of the Tri-State Firemen's Association Dec. 29 in Wellsville.

Twenty attended. The next meeting will be Jan. 7 when new officers will be seated.

50 Schools To Take Part

Science Fair Slated March 12-14

William A. Black, district manager of the Ohio Power Co., has accepted the chairmanship of a Tri-State Science Fair to be sponsored at the Westgate School March 12-14 by the Business & Professional Women's Club.

Invitations were mailed this week to 50 schools in the area to have students participate in the fair in which five $50 U. S. Savings Bonds will be awarded to first place winners.

BLACK, who has been associated in similar science fairs elsewhere, came to East Liverpool in June from Waynesburg. He is a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and holds bachelor and master degrees in electrical engineering.

The five divisions of the fair will feature exhibits and demontrations on general science along with biology, chemistry and physics.

Second and third prizes will also be awarded, along with honorable mention ribbons.

W. A. BLACK

Any student in grades 7 through 12 in schools in Columbiana or Jefferson Counties, Hancock County in West Virginia and Midland and Hookstown Schools in Pennsylvania may enter.

—:—

THE FIVE MAJOR groups for exhibits are 1—Seventh and Eighth Grade Science; 2—Ninth Grade General Science; 3—Biology; 4—Chemistry, and 5—Physics. Groups 3, 4 and 5 are for grades 10-12.

Biology exhibits would deal with plants, animals, life processes, nature study and similar subjects. Chemistry exhibits concern chemical compounds, reactions, processes and synthetics. The physics exhibits or demonstrations deal with geology, natural forces, astronomy, meteorology, mathematics, electronics and related fields.

The exhibits should not be larger than 30-by-40 inches, and should be constructed by a student or a group of not more than three.

COPIES OF regulations and application forms may be obtained by writing to Tri-State Science Fair, Box 98, East Liverpool. Applications must be filed by Feb. 10.

A meeting of an area teen-age council to discuss registration, aid with exhibits and school publicity will be held Jan. 24. A committee of judges for the fair will be named in mid-February.

Tentative plans call for a special speaker on science to appear at the first day of the fair, which will also have exhibits from local industry.

THE FAIR planning committee includes Mrs. Ethel Wambaugh, Mrs. Nessie Dunlop, Mrs. Ethel Harvey and Miss Frances Jones of the BPW, along with six area teachers: Leslie Jackson of East Liverpool High School, John Ciccarelli of Westgate School, Ruth Williamson of Chester, Carl Peters of Newell, Walter Lineberry of Beaver Local and William Watt of South Side Jointure.

Gov. O'Neill Pardons Convicted Embezzler

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Carl L. McCain of Waverly, convicted in 1934 for embezzlement in Jackson County, has been given a pardon by Gov. C. William O'Neill. The governor said McCain has led an exemplary life since being released from Ohio Penitentiary in 1935.

O'Neill Thursday also extended clemency to Grant Scott, 45, convicted of first-degree murder in the holdup-slaying of a restaurant operator in Akron Dec. 16, 1937.

Scott, serving a life term, was released from Ohio Penitentiary last March after former Gov. Frank J. Lausche commuted his sentence to second-degree murder. O'Neill commuted the sentence to first-degree manslaughter, releasing Scott from lifetime parole. Scott, while a trusty, was a chauffeur for both governors.

Foreman Killed

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Hubert Cole, 50, a construction company foreman, was killed Thursday at the Armco Steel Corp. plant. His body was found in a pit in front of a furnace. Dr. Garret J. Boone, Butler County coroner, said Cole might have fallen from a catwalk overhead although the walk was not directly over the pit.

Euclid Police Recover $14,314 And Arrest Three

CLEVELAND (AP) — Euclid police took less than an hour and a half Thursday to recover $14,314 stolen in a tavern holdup and arrest three men they said had fled with it.

The men held were identified by detectives as:

Walter Heysler, 30, of East Cleveland, on parole from Ohio Penitentiary where he served an 8½-year term for armed robbery; William Hale, 22, of Cleveland and Rocky Roberts, 30, of Columbus, who finished a prison term for a confidence game last Nov. 20.

The owner of the tavern which was robbed, Alfred Diebold, 64, said he had the large amount of cash on hand to cash paychecks. Diebold refused hospital treatment for head cuts received when he was slugged with a pistol by one of the gunmen.

Diebold said that the man who pointed a gun at him had it concealed in a Christmas tree he was carrying.

Two of the men arrested were captured behind a garage a few blocks from the scene. The third was inside a police cruiser trying to tell police "they went that way," when his description came over the cruiser radio.

Poles In Exile Urge Cardinal Stay In Rome

ROME (AP) — Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski left for Warsaw today as scores of Poles in exile from communism shouted: "Don't go back! You'll never be able to leave again!"

The Roman Catholic primate of Poland came to Rome two months ago for the conclave which elected Pope John XXIII to succeed Pius XII.

At the railroad station today anti - Communist Poles pressed about the prelate, clutching at his robes and shouting.

Cardinal Wyszynski was under house arrest in Poland during the 1953 consistory at which he became a cardinal. After Wladyslaw Gomulka rose to power in Poland in 1956, he was released and relations between church and state improved.

Coast Guard Convoys Ships In Lake Ice

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Coast Guard cutter Mesquite was convoying the Buckeye, Columbia Transportation Co. vessel, downbound in Lake St. Clair to Ecorse, Mich. early today.

Thursday night the Mesquite convoyed the Hennepin, A. M. Byers and Dow Chemical from Toledo to Detroit, and the Coast Guard's big ice breaker, Mackinaw, convoyed the Peter Reiss and Perseus from Pelee Passage to the Detroit River. Except for the Buckeye, which is carrying a load of sulphur, all freighters that were trapped by piled ice at the western end of Lake Erie had been freed and convoyed to port early today, the Coast Guard here said.

Giant Wave Injures 21 Of Coast Guard Crew

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Coast Guard cutter Gresham radioed Thursday that 21 of her crew were injured when a giant wave washed over her stern.

Another crew member, Ens. George Thomas Bergman, 23, of Canfield, Ohio, was washed overboard. He is survived by his father, George Bergman of Palmyra Road, Canfield.

An initial report from the Gresham said Bergman vanished when a single tremendous wave struck the ship. The vessel made for Midway Island to obtain medical aid. It was expected to arrive Saturday.

12-Week Strike Ends

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 12-week strike by the American Federation of Radio and Television Artists against radio station WSRS was settled Thursday night, spokesmen for the union and company said. S. R. Sague, station president, and Tom Carson of AFRTA did not disclose settlement terms.

Bringing Up A Family

Good Books Ideal Gift For Child

Let me urge you to include good books among your Christmas gifts to children. There are many excellent books on the market for children from about two years of age and up. Perhaps the greatest progress lately in publishing beautiful books has been for the pre-school years. Almost any child will begin to listen by the age of two if his father or mother talks with him about pictures in a beautiful book or reads a few words in prose or short nursery rhymes as he looks on. With so many children being left with baby sitters today, beautiful picture books are growing even more useful and popular.

By Garry Meyers

IT IS BETTER to buy the child of any age a few attractive books of good content than a lot of books that are trashy or mediocre. You can go to your public library and ask the librarian to show you some of the new and older books suited to the various ages and reading interest and level of your children.

Some book stores or book sections of department stores have able persons to help you examine a wide variety of fine books. Sometimes you might take the child with you.

In buying a book for a child who can read, you should know not only his interest but also how well he can read. The grade he happens to be in at school is not necessarily a good guide. If he is a very good reader, he may find a book to his taste usually selected for children older than he. If he is a poor reader, a book deemed suitable for his grade may be too hard for him and he may become discouraged and not finish it.

WHEN I WAS between 8 and 12, an aunt of mine used to give me a book for Christmas. Every one of them was too hard for me to read, although they were meant for the average child my age.

I was such a poor reader then that I never read more than a few pages of a single one. My older brother would nag at me in vain to read them and I dreaded the times when my aunt might question me about the book. I should hasten to add that I have learned to read fairly well since.

It is wonderful when parents, grandparents and other relatives help a child build up a home library of good books over the years. It is still more wonderful when they find ways to help the child gain good skills in reading and a growing zeal to read more books.

My bulletins, "Home Helps For Poor Readers I and II" and "Why Read to Baby and Young Child?" may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Turncoat Ringleader Praises Communism

HONG KONG (AP) — Richard G. Corden, ringleader of the 21 American turncoats of the Korean War, emerged from Red China today spouting the Communist line full blast.

Corden, 31, from East Providence, R.I., told a news conference: "I firmly believe there is more democracy in Communist China than in the United States. I've got nothing to be ashamed of. I learned a lot."

He left Communist China because he was homesick and could not finish his studies in ancient Chinese literature.

He is the 10th of the turncoats to return from Red China. One other died there. Corden said the 10 still behind the Bamboo Curtain are doing well and he knows of none who want to return to America.

Rome Court Delays Bergman Annulment

ROME (AP) — The Rome appeals court is not going to decide whether Ingrid Bergman and Roberto Rosellini can have an annulment before February.

The court held a closed hearing today on the state prosecutor's appeal against the annulment granted by the Rome district court last July. Another hearing was scheduled for Feb. 3.

The state prosecutor contends that the district court had no jurisdiction or authority to annul the Mexican proxy marriage. Rosellini, with Miss Bergman concurring, had obtained the annulment on the ground that the marriage was not valid.

Killed In Cave-In

WAVERLY, Ohio (AP)—Charles G. Williamson, a 40-year-old construction worker from Rt. 1, Waverly, was killed Thursday when the ditch he was working in at the atomic energy plant here caved in on him.

Student Charged With Murder Of Expectant Mother

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—David S. Smith, 20-year-old part - time college student, has been charged with first-degree murder in the slaying of Mrs. Janice O. Porter, 24, an expectant mother.

The victim was tied and gagged, assaulted and shot through the head with a .22 caliber pistol at her father-in-law's suburban home near here Tuesday. Services for Mrs. Porter, who had been expecting her first child in a few days, were to be held today in Zanesville, her hometown.

Smith, meanwhile, faces a preliminary hearing today in Municipal Court. The youth is a student at Ohio State University, where Mrs. Porter's husband, Myron, 26, is studying dentistry.

Authorities said Smith admitted the slaying and told them he had planned for two or three days to assault Mrs. Porter. Officials say he appears to be sane, but his attorney said Smith shows indications of insanity and will be examined by a psychiatrist.

Finds Son Killed

TURNER, Ore. (AP) — Police Chief John Rose went to the railroad crossing to investigate a fatal accident. He found that the victim was his 7-year-old son Kenneth, struck and killed by a train as he walked home from school.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

Radio, TV Can't Fill Newspaper Gap

Charles Chapin, city editor of the old New York Evening World, while awaiting trial for the murder of his wife, used to call in the Evening World reporters and raise cain with them about the way they were covering the story.

John Crosby

So they say, anyway (the same people who said it couldn't be done, that is), and after this last week in a newspaperless New York, I'm ready to believe it.

When you have spent a week in a town without newspapers, the hunger for news gets fairly ravenous. But it is not for news from Syria that you hunger. It's news about your own little rat race, only occasionally known as the newspaper dodge.

We were horribly dependent on the radio and the television for news of our own affairs, our own newspaper, our chances to get back to work.

ABOUT ALL we heard — every hour on the hour—was that there was a strike.

But what were the issues, fellows? Who said what to whom? How far apart are they? What concessions did the publishers make? What about the truck drivers? Who represents the truck drivers? Who the publishers? What precipitated the strike and what the chances of settlement?

Questions, fellows, questions!

Instead of information we got the rich throaty voice. the pregnant pause, the mellifluous flowing sentences with the perceptible punctuation. But the rich throaty voice didn't say anything. Or almost nothing.

WNEW had the splendid idea of having columnists read their own perishable prose between rock 'n' roll records. Cholly Knickerbocker, otherwise known as Igor Cassini, came on, whinnying gently, and fluted: "Between you and me and the lamppost and 20 million readers, Linda Christian is up to her old tricks."

And he told a perfectly ghastly story about Linda's losing her earrings which would have been otherwise lost to posterity. "This is Cholly Knickerbocker saying goodbye, dear readers and listeners." Bye!

WRCA BROUGHT on a full hour of reporters and columnists of the New York Times, proving that those august bylines actually breathe and talk. This was a newsy session except that even the Times men stepped gingerly around the strike situation as if they feared making it worse.

About the one thing a newspaper strike proves again and again is that newspapers are hard to get along without. You can't wrap a fish in Edward R. Murrow's sepulchral tones. You can't hum Chet Huntley all the way to work on the 8:12.

Husbands have had a good look at their wives for the first time in years over the breakfast table and it's been a sobering experience.

JOHN PATRICK, author of "The Hasty Heart," which was du Pont's Show of the Month Thursday on CBS-TV, only recently has succumbed to television and is on the whole appalled by it.

"What appalls me are the commercials," he says. "They are often in such bad taste.

"I remember once during the war coming back to the United States on a transport. Suddenly the air was full of commercials. One forgot how bad they were, having been away."

I asked Mr. Patrick what he had been watching and what he thought about it all:

"I started out listening to Mr. Paar and at first I rather enjoyed him and then, little by little—how can I put this?—a lack of humanity showed through. Now I go to bed.

"Ben Hecht is interesting and unusual. But destructiveness just for the sake of being an iconoclast? I do think when he calls Hemingway a fraud and then talks baby talk, he's going too far.

"SINCE I'VE been watching TV I've decided I like to see only two people on that screen. I don't like to see 20 dancers. I can't follow them. I do like Ed Murrow's "Small World.' I've liked all but two of those.

"I'm a better farmer than a playwright. I raise Angus and white Sonen goats. I'm in love with goats. I'm starting a world crusade for people to understand goats again.

"I've made a short film on goats, taking it from the time a goat is born until she gives birth. They are wonderful creatures—kind, loving, sweet - smelling. I adore them. Can I sell you a goat?"

Firm Official Hopes To Resume Peace Talks

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—An Electric Auto-Lite Co. spokesman voiced a hope today that negotiations could resume on a company-wide basis this weekend in an effort to end a strike at 11 of the firm's plants.

Local issues have been a barrier to negotiation of a master agreement in the three-week-old walkout by United Auto Workers members. Bargaining has been going on to dispose of the disputes and grievances at separate plants.

An agreement was reached Thursday night, the company spokesman said, on local issues at the Fostoria sparkplug plant, which employs about 1,000.

Cincinnati Youth, 19, Killed As Car Wrecks

CINCINNATI (AP)—Donald Edwards, 19, Cincinnati, was killed early today when the automobile in which he was riding north of the city struck four guard rails and went into a ditch.

Thomas Dryden, 18, identified by police as the driver of the car, escaped injury.

Terms To End For 3 Serving In City Boards

Health, Park Boards Sinking Fund Group Members Affected

The terms of three members of unsalaried municipal boards and commissions are scheduled to expire at midnight Dec. 31. A fourth vacancy exists because of death.

The posts are subject to appointment by Mayor Fred P. Lawrence. The expiring terms are held by:

E. R. Liebschner Jr. on the Board of Health.

Atty. William H. Vodrey Jr. on the Board of Thompson Park Commissioners.

R. L. Cawood on the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners.

There is a second vacancy on the Sinking Fund Commission, resulting from the death last summer of T. H. Fisher, who was president of the First National Bank. Mayor Lawrence has indicated he also expects to fill it soon. As Fisher had been re-appointed to a four-year term last Jan. 1, three years remain in the unexpired tenure.

There are no expiring terms on two other city agencies—the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Public Library and the Municipal Civil Service Commission.

Expiration dates of the terms are staggered so that a few run out at the end of each year. At the end of 1954, for instance, only two expired. Four ran out at the end of 1955, five expired as 1956 ended and seven ran out at the end of 1957.

Hold-over members of the Sinking Fund Commission are William J. Bamer, whose term runs through 1959, and William B. Cooper, 1960. William Gaston is clerk, elected by the commission.

Remaining on the Thompson Park Board are Louis Yanni, whose term runs through 1959; W. Leland Thompson, secretary, 1960, and Probate Judge Louis Tobin, president, 1961.

The hold-over members of the Health Board are C. Frank Dales, whose term runs through 1959; Dr. J. Keith Rugh, 1960; Mrs. Ila Finney Johnston, 1961, and Dr. C. M. Mayberry, 1962.

Three members of the Library Board hold terms that run through 1960. Three more appointed Jan. 1, 1958, will remain in office through 1961.

The members are: The Rev. M. Rudolph Miller, president; Miss Sara Heddleston, secretary, and Fred McGillivray, treasurer, whose terms run through 1960, and Wilford Padgett, Atty. Robert A. Kapp and James J. McGowan, whose terms will expire at the end of 1961.

The members of the Civil Service Commission are: Donal I. Burcham, chairman, whose term runs through 1961, Alvin Babb, 1959, and Atty. Ben H. Berman, 1963. The terms are for six years. Collin L. Neal is secretary, elected by the commission.

The commission generally elects a chairman and a secretary at its first January meeting. Babb was named to the commission early this year to fill out the unexpired term of Clarence D. Wright, resigned.

Boy With Ailment Has Christmas Early

ALBION, N.Y. (AP) — Little Paul Reiferson, suffering from a kidney ailment doctors fear incurable, had his Christmas a week early.

Charles Howard, who runs a school here for department store Santas from all over the country, put on his best red and white Christmas suit to do the job.

Paul, the youngest of five children of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Heiferson of Albion, has been in and out of hospitals for many months.

Train Vs. Missile Battle Declared Draw

The question of which has priority — train or missile — came up Tuesday during the first West Coast launching of a Thor intermediate range ballistic missile.

Several trains were waved through while crews prepared to launch the Thor. The tracks pass through the base about three-quarters of a mile from the launching pads.

The Air Force said it has signed an agreement with the Southern Pacific Railroad not to schedule missile firings to interfere with scheduled train movement. The SP, in return, agreed that unscheduled freight trains would be delayed on each side of the base during firings.

Dog License Sale Planned

Agencies Listed For Issuing 1959 Tags

Auditor I. J. Vorndran today announced the agencies for sale of Columbiana County's 1959 dog license and said applications will be mailed Dec. 26 to each owner who bought tags in 1958.

Some 16,152 licenses were sold in 1958, or over 1,000 more than in 1957.

The fee is $2 per dog, 3 months and older, regardless of sex, and kennel fee is $10. The deadline is Jan. 20 after which there is a $1 penalty.

The agencies include:

East Liverpool — Columbiana County Motor Club, Mary Patterson Memorial, E. 4th St.; Saltsman's Drugstore, Little Building; Heimie's, 529 Washington St.; Irwin Pharmacy, 1216 Avondale St.; Bloor's Pharmacy, 1010 Pennsylvania Ave.; Blankenship Insurance Agency, 510 Walnut St.; Ruth Scott at City Building and L. & M. Hardware at Calcutta.

Wellsville — Hannum Drugstore, 1301 Main St.; Hammond's Grocery, and Betty Rager, Geotz Clothing Store.

Columbiana — Kathryn Fuhrman Insurance Agency and Keller Hardware.

Leetonia — Citizen's Savings Bank and Roose Drugstore.

East Rochester Hardware store; Switzer store in Elkton, J. A. Drake at Hanoverton; Walborn's store in Homeworth, Post Office at Kensington, C. M. Blake general store in Millport, Post Office in North Georgetown and Doris Eshelman of E. Main St., Salineville. Five are in Salem.

Ticket Sale Launched For Inaugural Dance

Tickets are now on sale for Columbiana County Democrats planning to attend the inaugural ball in Columbus Jan. 12, Don R. Gosney, county chairman reported today.

Inauguration ceremonies for the new state officials will be held at noon Jan. 12, followed by receptions in various offices.

The ball will be held in the evening at the Veterans Memorial Building and Gosney said a large delegation from the county expects to attend.

County Democrats also will hold a victory dinner in January. The time and place will be announced later. Those interested in attending the inauguration are to contact Gosney's office at Columbiana.

Jury Convicts Texan In Shooting Death

CELINA, Ohio (AP) — A jury has convicted Gregorio Prado Valdez of second-degree murder in the shooting of a fellow itinerant tomato picker last Aug. 26.

Valdez, 36, of San Antonio, Tex., was found guilty Thursday of slaying Jesse Gomez, 33, a native of Puerto Rico who made his home in Saginaw, Mich.

Sheriff Bruce Barber said the shooting climaxed a quarrel over wages between the victim and Guadelupe Callejas, 22, also of Saginaw, Callejas is awaiting trial on second-degree murder charges as a conspirator in Gomez' death.

Statement Shows Democratic Unit Owes $38,898

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An expense statement shows that the Democratic State Executive Committee owes $38,898.

Most of this is owed to the committee's chairman, William L. Coleman, for $28,125 in back salary from Dec. 15, 1956, to last Nov. 1.

In addition, $10,765.72 is owed the Samuel L. Abrams Advertising Agency Service in Cleveland for publicity work in the 1954 and 1956 campaigns, and $2,497.14 is owed the F. J. Heer Printing Co., Columbus.

This was disclosed Thursday when Coleman filed the committee's expense statement with Secretary of State Ted W. Brown.

The accounting shows that the committee closed out this year's campaign within revenues, receiving $52,861.82 and spending $50,372.19. The remaining $2,489 will go for maintenance of state headquarters and other obligations.

Other election campaign expense statements filed before today's 4 p.m. deadline included:

Ohio AFL - CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE), received $35,263.62 and spent $23,816, with a balance of $11,447 for "future political purposes."

Ohio AFL-CIO Federation of Labor Education Fund, received $159,267.36 and spent $156,625.67, with a balance of $2,641 to go to the COPE.

Cuyahoga County Bricker for Senator Committee, received and spent $7,385.

Hamilton County DiSalle for Governor Committee, received $2,445 and spent $1,806.79, the balance to go to the Hamilton County Executive Committee.

Midland Kaycees Plan Party For Children

Midland Council 2005 of the Knights of Columbus made plans for its holiday party for members and their children at a meeting Wednesday evening in the K. of C. Hall.

The party will be held Dec. 28 at 1 p. m. in the Presentation Catholic Church lyceum. There will be a luncheon and children will receive small gifts. Entertainment plans are not complete.

Chester Guilds Plan Parish Children's Fete

Children of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church parish of Chester will be guests at a Christmas party Saturday morning at 11 at the School Hall.

The event will be held by the Sacred Heart Guild and the Catholic Ladies Guild. Santa will distribute treats Mrs. Ann Pinney, chairman, said.

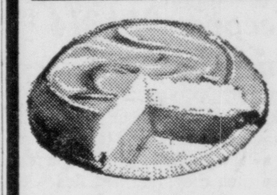

The party will follow the regular Saturday morning catechism classes.

614 To Get Degrees At OSU Ceremonies

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Degrees were to be presented to 614 seniors and graduate students at Ohio State University's autumn commencement exercises today. Twenty-four graduated with honors.

Among the graduates is Robin Freeman of Cincinnati, an all-America basketball player at Ohio State in 1955-56. He received a law degree.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Buckeye Sheriffs' Assn. has elected Carson C. Davis of Hancock County as its president.

In other elections Thursday at the group's convention here, Dean D. Ellis of Washington County was named first vice president; Tom Fasula of Ashtabula County, second vice president; Arthur Shuman of Clark County, executive secretary; and Charles Radcliff of Pickaway County, treasurer.

Trustees are Wilmer Clay of Van Wert County; Arnold Potts of Putnam County; Louis A. Rolusky of Geauga County; T. Herbert Thomas of Trumbull County; Stacy Hall of Franklin County; Fred J. Heinzelman of Ross County; Donald Conaway of Noble County; Harold Steel of Vinton County, and John Bridenbaugh of Defiance County.

Frank Rizer Appointed Glenmoor Fire Captain

Frank Rizer of Annesley Rd. was named captain of the Glenmoor fire department and secretary of the Firemen's Association at a meeting Thursday night at the fire station.

Anthony Bisco of the Y. & O. Rd. was appointed a lieutenant.

Fire Chief Kenneth Mills discussed the installation of a new short wave radio transmitter on the emergency car, for use in communication with other fire and law enforcement units. He said a similar transceiver may be installed on the new fire truck.

Santa and the ELF BOY

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

(Santa has called the fairy folk together and told them of their peril. He asked them where the Hag could be found. "In witches land," said an elf. But she has gone from there, says a witch—"To the moon.")

CHAPTER 14

"The Hangdog Hag has gone to the moon!" cried Santa.

All the fairy folk moaned. Well they knew that if the Hag had fled to the moon they could never reach her. The spell she had cast over the professor's wife could not be broken and the professor would release the awful gas that would destroy them all.

A little pigwidgeon burst into tears. The wraiths were bowed with grief. The leprechauns hugged one another in fear and even the ghosts turned whiter.

Then Esteban tugged at Santa's sleeve. "I could go to the moon," he whispered.

"How?" asked Santa.

"In your sleigh," said Esteban. "Your reindeer could take me there."

SANTA turned to Patrick Tweedleknees. "Is it true?" he asked the keeper of the deer. "Could the deer get to the moon?"

Tweedleknees nodded unhappily. He hated to tire the deer with Christmas so near but he knew that Christmas itself depended on the trip to the moon. So he said, "The deer are ready. They can go anywhere."

"Then," said Santa, "I will go."

"No, no," protested Tweedleknees. "You must stay here. There is a mountain of work to be done and if the mission succeeds and there is to be a Christmas we must be ready for it."

"It will succeed!" promised Esteban.

All the fairy folk agreed that Santa could not be spared and that since Esteban had already done so much he should have the honor of going.

So once again the reindeer were put into harness and, with Esteban in the sleigh, took off into the sky.

Faster than the wind they went, straight into the heavens. In a few hours they had left the earth far behind and were flying among the stars.

SOMETIMES it was very hot. Other times it was colder than Santa Land had ever been.

On and on and on they went until they reached the highest sky. Here they lost all sense of weight and though the deer sped on it was as if they were floating upward with no effort at all. Esteban had to hold tight to the sleigh or he would have floated off by himself.

Now the moon came closer and closer and instead of going upward it seemed to Esteban that they were gently floating down.

"Fi! Fi! Fi!" cried the man in the moon.

But when they landed at last the moon was not the beautiful silver ball Esteban had seen from afar. It was gray and barren and desolate with not a sign of life anywhere—not even a blade of grass.

Esteban stared at the treeless mountains that towered around him. He was frightened and more lonely than he had ever been in his life.

"How shall I find the Hag?" he wondered.

AT THAT moment he heard a shout and turning he saw an old, old, man hobbling out of the hills.

"Fi! Fi! Fi!" shouted the man, waving a stick.

Esteban turned pale and his knees shook. He wanted to run away but there was no place for him to run to.

The old man arrived out of breath.

"Fi!" he gasped and smiled. The smile spread across his whole face and suddenly Esteban understood that instead of "Fi" the old man meant to say "Hi!"

"Hi!" cried Esteban smiling too. "Who are you?"

"I?" said the old, old man raising his eyebrows in surprise. "I am the Man in the Moon."

Negotiators Enter 4th Day In Bid To End Glass Strike

CINCINNATI (AP)—Negotiators went into the fourth day of sessions here this morning in an effort to end the long strike of 13,000 employes of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. The strike began Oct. 6.

Representatives of the United Glass and Ceramic Workers Union, management and two federal mediators have guarded closely what has gone on in the sessions. Mediator Hayward J. Montoney, spokesman for the groups, merely has said from session to session that the conference are continuing.

It was a moot question whether there was any significance in the fact that group meetings followed Thursday's general session. Montoney said they were on a basis of demands which would cover each of the company's 11 plants.

The issue holding up agreement on a new contract reportedly is proposed reclassification of workers' duties, reduction of the size of work crews and other changes. Wages, it was understood, are not at issue.

County Cow Sets Ohio Milk Production Mark

COLUMBIANA — A 9-year-old Brown Swiss cow owned by Paul Witmer & Sons of Columbiana has set a new Ohio record for butterfat production. Over 365 days, V B Diplomats Regula, purchased by Ditmer in 1956 at an auction in Springfield, produced 26,121 pounds of 4.78 per cent butterfat milk on twice - a - day milking.

The butterfat weighed 1,249 pounds — a new national record for Brown Swiss. The production record is more than three times the Ohio average for all breeds. The records were announced officially Thursday at Witmer's farm. Ohio State University and the National Brown Swiss Association supervised the test.

Killed In Wreck

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Lena Arnold, of Cincinnati, was injured fatally Thursday night when an automobile driven by her husband, Raymond, 65, struck the rear of a tractor-trailer, police reported. Arnold was injured seriously.

Wellsville VFW Plans Yule Party

Plans were completed Tuesday evening by the Wellsville Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 5647 for a Christmas party for members and their families Saturday at 7 p.m. at the post home.

The party will be held jointly with the auxiliary. There will be treats and movies. Santa will greet the children.

Four members of the post were presented awards from the department headquarters in Columbus for sighing up the most new members in the current drive which continues through January.

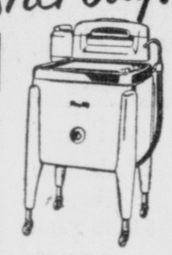

They are Frank Miller, Nick Puch, Jim Daniels and Earl Roseberry.

According To New Estimate

U.S. Seen Making Gains In Missile-Bomber Race

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — An new estimate by American authorities of Russia's missile-bomber progress gives the Reds a lower rating them half a year ago.

An assessment made last spring, which indicated substantial leads by the Soviets in several fields of weapons, has been re-evaluated, responsible sources said today.

Now the relative, over-all position of the United States in ballistic missiles appears to have improved. In manned bombers this country retains what the analysts consider a clear superiority.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev's recent claim of an intercontinental ballistic missible capable of 8,700-mile range does not seem to have influenced this re-evaluation. Nor are the analysts ready to accept completely reports that Russia is flying a nuclear powered bomber.

The United States may not have a high-performance nuclear bomber flying for another five to eight years.

In the case of the ICBM, U. S. authorities make these points:

Khrushchev speaking to U. S. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn) in Moscow, did not appear to have claimed that Russia had fired a missile 8,700 miles but merely said Russia had a missile capable of such range.

The second generation American ICBM, the Titan, is expected by its designers to be able to reach out as far as the reported Russian weapon. The first U. S. ICBM, the Atlas — which unlike the Titan has been test fired—has scored 6,325 miles.

Maj. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, chief of the Air Force's Ballistic missile division, gave a summary of relative American and Russian positions in ballistic missiles last month before the Khrushchev - Humphrey meeting.

Schriever said:

At the moment, the Soviet Union appears to have an advantage in ballistic missiles of under 1,000-mile range. The situation was less clear on 1,500-mile intermediate range ballistic missiles. But Schriever said the American Thor and Jupiter IRBMs have been quite successful in recent tests.

As for the ICBM, he said, "We have no reason to believe that the Russians are appreciably ahead of us" in development.

In long-range strategic bombers, Pentagon officials insist that the United States holds superiority even though the number of bombers might total more on the Soviet side.

Parma Heights Man Foils Two In Robbery Attempt

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Parma Heights man Thursday night foiled two men who tried to rob him of $2,000 he was taking to an East Side plant to cash pay checks for fellow employes to whom he loans money.

Louis Oliver, 37, a driver for the Leece-Neville Co., told police two men came up to his car as he drove to the door of the plant.

Told to get out of the car, Oliver said he stalled and then dropped his car keys on the floor. When he bent over to pick them up he threw open the door and charged out.

One of the men clubbed him on the head, and the other fired a shotgun charge. The charge missed Oliver, but one of the pellets hit the pistol-carrying robber in the hand.

Oliver ducked into a doorway with the money, and the robbers fled.

Twenty minutes after the shooting police found Charles Rhodes, 30, hiding on the floor of a car parked nearby. There was a plated pistol beside him.

Farm Bureau To Pay County Shareholders

LISBON — A number of Columbiana County shareholders of stock in the Ohio Farm Bureau Co-operative Association will receive dividend checks this week, totaling $185,000 among 15,000 persons in Ohio, according to C. W. Fullerton, treasurer and director of finance of the OFBCA at Columbus.

Fullerton said this is the 24th consecutive year that dividends have been paid on the company's investment stock.

"This dividend payment, authorized by the Board of Directors," Fullerton said, "includes the annual payment on 5 per cent on common stock and the semi-annual dividend first preferred stock, which has an annual interest rate of 4 per cent."

Hookstown

The Helping Hands and the Junior Christians groups of the Hookstown Presbyterian Church will hold a Christmas program Sunday at 7 p. m. at the church.

Miss Olive Floyd, Mrs. Millard Dawson, Mrs. Gregg McElhaney and Mrs. James Hubbard are in charge. Parents and friends may attend.

Newell Man Hurt At Work

4 Youngsters And Adults Also Injured

A Newell man injured at work was admitted Thursday to City Hospital where four youngsters and adults were treated following separate mishaps yesterday.

Winfield Campbell, 55, of 521 Jefferson St., Newell, suffered a severe laceration of an index finger when caught in the door of the mold shop of the New Castle Refractories.

Jim Perkins, 21, of 1217 Riverview St. received a laceration of a hand on a piece of tin while placing groceries in a truck yesterday afternoon.

Edward Cain, 78, of 321 Center St. was treated for a laceration of the scalp received in a fall on W. 6th St.

In a fall against a bell on a bicycle, Robert Blatchford, 3, son of Mrs. Martha Blatchford, 311 Garfield St., received a cut of the left side of the face.

Steven Felton, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Felton of Armstrong Ln., suffered a cut of the scalp in a fall at home on glass.

Children's Parties Set For 3 Communities

EAST PALESTINE — Christmas parties for children of East Palestine, Negley and New Waterford will be held this weekend by various veterans, firemen and lodge groups.

Some 1,000 city youngsters are expected at a community party Saturday afternoon at 1 at the high school, sponsored by the American Legion, Moose Lodge, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Eagles Lodge and Italian Tripoli Lodge.

Negley firemen will hold a party at the Negley fire station Saturday afternoon at 2 when Santa Claus will arrive on a fire truck. About 200 are expected.

Some 300 are expected at a Yule party Sunday afternoon at 2 at the Fish & Game Club building, sponsored by the volunteer firemen.

Kiwanians Fete 40 Children For Christmas Party

There were 21 girls and 19 boys at the dinner at which a Christmas story was related by the Rev. James Hunton of the First Church of the Nazarene.

Marion Horger and B. E. Warner were co - chairmen of the general committee which included Dr. Arthur Turner, Fred Stevens, Dr. Charles Waggoner, Dr. Milton Wolpert, Paul Bloor, Joe Prager, Dr. Alex Fisher, Gordon Starkey and Paul Blair.

The party gifts and expense was paid by personal contributions and not from club funds, Horger said. Women assisting at the party were Mrs. Richard Beatty, Mrs. Waggoner, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Prager, Mrs. Al Webber and Mrs. Edna Jones, school nurse.

Santa Will Treat Boys Of Midland Cub Pack

Cub Pack 415 of Midland will receive treats from Santa Claus during a Christmas party and meeting to be held Monday at 7 p. m. in the United Steelworkers Hall.

There will be a 25 - cent gift exchange. Dens will give skits on the Christmas theme.

During a bob cat ceremony, five boys will be inducted by George Huha, cubmaster. They are Thomas Doyle Jr., Norman Orr, Barney Newman, Walter Marciniak and George Mraovic.

Awards that were to have been given during the canceled November meeting will be presented.

As the December project, members have been helping Midland American Legion Post 481 with its toy drive. Boys have been collecting and repairing toys for needy children.

Canton McKinley To Bring Unbeaten Team Here Saturday

Stark County Five Has Won Three In Row

Canton McKinley's Bulldogs—East Liverpool's opponent Saturday night at Memorial Auditorium—appear to be well on their way to another winning basketball season.

Led by 6-foot, 3-inch Bill Babics, Coach Bup Rearick's Stark County squad has clicked off three victories in a row.

McKinley will be one of the tallest teams faced by the Potters this season, with four of the starters hitting the six-foot mork or over. The fifth man stands 5-foot, 9-inches.

Babics, a varsity end on the football squad, has been the team's leading point producer this year with 45, for an average of 15 per game. He is a junior forward.

His height is matched by the other forward, Floyd McIlwain, also a junior, while center Bob Winn towers 6-foot, 5-inches. McKinley's backcourt duo is not quite as tall. Both are seniors.

One guard spot will go to Gene Mastin, 6-1, and the other to Roger Schnoke, 5-9, the shortest man on Rearick's 10-man varsity squad.

McKinley rolled over Cleveland Lincoln in the season opener, 57-48, whipped Canton South, 48-34, and last week crushed Dover, 62-39.

Over the years, McKinley has been one of East Liverpool's toughest opponents in regular season competition. Since the teams began meeting, McKinley has won 20 games to East Liverpool's 10.

This year, McKinley will be after its fourth straight over the Potters. The streak started in 1956 when McKinley won, 58-40. In 1957, the Bulldogs outscored the Potters, 71-62, and in 1958, trounced East Liverpool, 60-38.

McKinley posted a 15-3 regular season mark last year and was 18-4 overall, including tournament play.

Rearick also has ample height in his second five. It includes Charles Kosich, 6-3 senior, Dave Vince, 6-2 junior, John Wynne, 6-foot senior, and Don Hutchinson, 6-foot senior. Mike Eror, a 5-10 sophomore, also travels with the varsity outfit.

Midland USW Cagers To Meet New Castle

Midland USW's basketball team will oppose the "Mayor Five" of New Castle Saturday night at the Lincoln High School gymnasium in Midland, Tony Versilli, coach, reported.

The New Castle five features Jim Riley, former Westminster star. There will be no admission charge for the game which begins at 8:30, Verzilli said. Other games are planned on following Saturday nights.

Thursday night, the Midland squad rolled over the Allegheny Steelers, 111-64, at Wilkensburg. John Jones and Nick Cutich paced the attack with 28 and 26 points respectively.

Ed Kuna had 19, Dan Sekeres and Paul Pupi 12 each, and Mickey Spanik 14 to round out the Midland scoring.

Huyck was high for the losers with 19 points.

Capture 9 Of 11 Events

Potters Rout Barnesville Wrestlers To Win Third Straight Match, 35-6

East Liverpool High's undefeated wrestling team swept 9 of 11 events in soundly trouncing Barnesville High, 35-6, Thursday afternoon at Memorial Auditorium.

After Barnesville had won two of the first three events, Coach Lou Venditti's pupils proceeded to virtually walk away with the match in scoring their third consecutive victory of the season.

The Potters finished strong in the upper weight divisions as they closed out the match with three straight pins.

In the first event of the afternoon, Barnesville's Thornburn decisioned John Goemple, 6-4, in the 103-pound class to give the visitors a 3-0 lead.

The next event in the 112-pound class went to the Potters as Don Bouscher, substituting for injured Skip Nortrup, decisioned Barnesville's Foreman to tie the score, 3-3.

Burnfill put Barnesville into the lead once more, 6-3, when he decisioned Larry McCullough, 3-2, in the 120-pound class.

However, East Liverpool's Harold Waulderhauf then tied the score by decisioning Huff, 4-0. That was all the scoring Barnsville did as the Potters won the next seven events in a row to wrap up the victory in easy fashion.

Following Waulderhauf's decision, Potter Glenn Mays made his varsity debut a successful one by decisioning Slevin, 7-4.

Bob Springer decisioned Barnesville's Murphy in the next event, a 138-pound match, by piling up a 6-2 score. The next match found East Liverpool's 145-pound sophomore John Goodballet scoring everything but a pin in whipping Reed, 11-0.

The Potters then scored three straight pins. Leading 15-6, Potter Nick Musuraca started the rout on its way by shouldering Simmons in 3 minutes and 37 seconds of a 154-pound event.

Carl Ludwig, substituting for injured Jim Bise who missed the last two matches, scored the quickest pin of the match by triumphing over Lallratrin in only one minute.

Bill O'Neil, a 175-pound wrestler, scored the third pin for the Potters in 2:58 over Thompson of Barnesville. The Potters won the heavyweight event by forfeit as Barnesville had no man in that class.

Goemple, who lost two valuable points with an illegal hold, saw his undefeated string snapped after victories in matches with Brilliant and Beaver Local.

Nine Potters are as yet undefeated in their respective weight brackets. Waulderhauf, Springer, Musuraca, O'Neil, and McKinnon have been victorious in three matches this year.

It was the final match for the Potter team until after the Christmas holidays. Weirton will be the next opponent the squad will attempt to add to its growing list of victims. The Red Riders visit Memorial Auditorium Jan. 6 for a match at 4 p. m.

The results follow:

103 — Thornburg (B) decisioned Goemple (EL), 6-4.

112 — Bouscher (EL) decisioned Foreman (B), 9-8.

133—Mays (EL) decisioned Slevin (B), 7-4.

145 — Goodballet (EL) decisioned Reed (B), 11-0.

154 — Musuraca (EL) pinned Simmons (B), 3:37.

165 — Ludwig (EL) pinned Lallatrin (B), 1:00.

175 — O'Neil (EL) pinned Thompson (B), 2:58.

Heavywegiht — McKinnon (EL) forfeit.

Small College Grid Crown At Stake In Bowl

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—A pair of unbeaten teams with high-powered offenses battle for the national small college football championship Saturday before a Holiday Bowl crowd of some 10,000 persons and national television audience.

Both Arizona State of Flagstaff and Northeastern Oklahoma State are expected to put on a wide-open show that could rival the excitement of last year's Holiday Bowl clash in which Pittsburg (Kan.) State nipped Hillsdale (Mich.) College 27-26.

Each team has averaged better than four touchdowns a game this season in rolling over all opposition. In winning 11 games and stretching their unbeaten streak to 14, the Arizona Lumberjacks have outscored their opponents an average of 28-7. The Redmen from Oklahoma have nearly an identical record, outscoring 10 foes an average of 29-8.

The two teams won Dec. 6 playoff games to qualify for the Holiday Bowl, which the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics bills as its championship game. The Redmen, ranked No. 1 in the NAIA ratings, stopped St. Benedict's of Kansas 19-14, and the Arizonans, No. 2, blasted Gustavus Adolphus of Minnesota 41-12.

CBS will telecast at 2 p.m., EST.

County Pays Bounty On 637 Foxes In 1958

LISBON — The feet of 637 foxes have been turned into Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan's office so far this year with hunters receiving $3 for each animal killed in Columbiana County.

Auditor I. J. Vorndran's office placed $1,800 in a fund this year for the bounty adopted by the commissioners in 1951 after numerous complaints that foxes were destroying wildlife. Commissioners are expected to authorize sufficient money to finish out the year.

Hunters in the county report there still are many more foxes, judging by tracks found through the rural sections during the recent heavy snow.

Merry Whirl Of Tourneys Starts Tonight

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

The merry whirl of holiday basketball tournaments starts spinning in full swing tonight. Four college festivals in the South launch this frantic period that will stretch past New Year's Day.

The University of Kentucky Invitational will take place at Lexington. Blue Grass Festival begins at Louisville. The Birmingham Classic gets under way at Birmingham, Ala., and the Citadel Invitational at Charleston, S. C. First-round games in all four tourneys will be played tonight. The finals will be decided Saturday night.

Second-ranked Kentucky (6-0), host in its own sixth annual invitational, meets Ohio State (1-2) after seventh-ranked West Virginia (6-1), the tournament's defending titlist, has played Oklahoma State (2-2).

Tenth-ranked North Carolina (3-0) faces Notre Dame (1-3) in the first game of the third annual Blue Grass Festival. Northwestern (3-0), listed sixth nationally, goes against host Louisville (4-2) in the afterpiece.

Pairings for the sixth annual Birmingham Classic are 13th-ranked Auburn (3-0) vs. Wyoming (2-3) and Alabama (3-2) vs. Texas A&M (4-0).

The Citadel (3-1) is the host in its first invitational and meets Georgia (3-1) in the second game. Miami, Fla., (4-2) clashes with Florida State (3-3) in the opener.

The fifth annual Quantico Marines Christmas Invitational Tourney ended Thursday night with host Quantico capturing the championship for the fourth time. The Marines defeated American University of Washington, D. C., 69-63.

Tennessee, No. 5, was the only member of the nation's top 10 teams in action Thursday night. The undefeated Vols overcame a five-point halftime deficit to whip Davidson 67-52 for their fifth straight victory.

Bradley (No. 11) posted its fifth triumph in a row by walloping Nebraska 85-48 while 18th-ranked Pitt bowed to Westminster (Pa.) 78-63 for the Panthers' second setback in five starts.

Beaver Local Juniors Whip School 16, 47-19

Beaver Local won a basketball doubleheader Thursday night at Williamsport over School 16 of Wellsville.

The Beaver Junior High team whipped School 16's junior high squad, 47-19. Dave Morse and Dave Myers had 12 points for the winners. In the preliminary, the Beaver seventh graders rallied in the final period to edge School 16's seventh graders, 14-11.

The Nasrullah-In Bloom colt bought by King Ranch for $70,000 at the 1957 Keeneland sales, has been named Law and Order.

Fairfield Wins Over Reserve By 52-To-51

WESTERN RESERVE — Clarence Kannal dropped in a set shot in the closing seconds here Thursday night to give Fairfield - Waterford a narrow 52-51 verdict over Western Reserve.

It was Fairfield - Waterford's second victory of the week. The Rebels whipped Greenford Tuesday night, 51-43, after trailing at the end of three periods.

It was Fairfield - Waterford's fourth victory in five starts. Kanal's shot came with the Rebels trailing, 51-50. Western Reserve led after three periods, 47-40, but could muster only four points in the final period.

Each team had 20 field goals. The Rebels converted 12 of 22 free throws and Western Reserve 11 of 21.

Jim Olnhausen and Lee Chamberlain led the winners' attack with 20 and 13 points, respectively. Don Schaeffer with 19 and Ed Schobel with 14 sparked the losers.

Beaver Local Rolls Over Newell, 82-50, For Third Win

Viking Quintet Suffers 5th Loss Of Campaign

By ROB NIBLOCK

Blitzing winless Newell with a 35-field goal assault, Beaver Local's cagers racked up their highest point total in three seasons to defeat the Vikings, 82-50, Thursday night at the West Virginia school.

Achieving 36 per cent accuracy from the field, Coach Jack Frontone's Beavers fired up 94 shots from all angles of the Newell court, which has become a favorite spot for visitors to limber their shooting arms this season.

Coach John Robison's sophomore - studded lineup found trouble containing the opposition again and went down to their fifth straight defeat.

But the young Vikings, showing more scrap with each contest, remained in contention until the third quarter.

For the Beavers, it was their third triumph. They have lost only to rival United.

Jump-shot specialist Jay Grubb dropped in 11 fielders and 7 of 8 free throws for 29 points to lead the Beaver Local attack and grab scoring honors.

Grubb, a senior, had accumulated 43 points in the first three Beaver Local contests for a 14.3 average. Last night's output jumped his average to an even 18.

Guard Bill Lyder spread his scoring over four periods and finished second high for the Beavers with 13.

The other guard, Frank Main, had trouble finding the range in the first half, but hit on his outside shots in the second to contribute 12 points. Center Mike Durbin also had 12 for the victors.

The other starter for the Beavers, Thurm Allen, finished with five.

Jerry Osborn, rangy Newell center, topped the losers with 16 points. Larry Hutton, who had earlier paced the reserves to a victory, chipped in with 13 and Bob Shenton contributed 11.

Tabbed the "young scholars" by Frontone — four starters are honor students — the Beavers — grabbed a four - point lead on a drive by Allen and a tip-in by Durbin and then set to work increasing the margin.

Robison, who to date is experiencing one of his most dismal seasons in his long tenure at the Newell helm, kept his charges "up" for two periods. They faltered in the third, but spurted again in the final period.

Newell had 13 points in each of the first two quarters, 6 in the third and 18 in the last.

Distributing their scoring fairly evenly over the four periods, a 23-point splurge in the closing quarter was the Beavers' best.

Newell, which hit for an even 50 per cent from the foul stripe, ironically had the same shooting percentage as Beaver Local, but got less than half as many tries at the hoop.

Numerous foul violations slowed the first half.

Two starters from each squad had three personals at the intermission, but the Beavers' Main was the only player to be waved to the bench with five. He fouled out at 2:49 of the fourth quarter, with Beaver Local leading 71-43.

In foul shooting, the winners made 12 of 22 for 55 per cent.

Bob Barnett tossed in the winning basket in the second extra period, giving the little Vikings a 47-45 triumph over the Beaver Local reserves.

High for the victors was Larry Hutton with 20. Barnet dropped in 16, all on field goals.

Rangers' Goalie Shuts Out Red Wings, 2-0

By The Associated Press

They said it probably would take a shutout from goalie Gump Worsley for the New York Rangers to beat the Detroit Red Wings this season. So Worsley did it.

The tiny New York goal-tender made 38 saves, many of them difficult, and the Rangers, regaining fourth place in the National Hockey League, beat the Wings for the first time in six meetings, 2-0 Thursday night.

The loss was a costly one for the second place Red Wings, who slipped six points behind the league-leading Montreal Canadiens after Montreal whipped Toronto 4-1.

Oberlin, B-W Dump Cagers Of Rochester

By The Associated Press

Two Rochester, N.Y., basketball teams did not fare well with Ohio cage teams, but they were the only out-of-staters to be defeated Thursday night.

At Oberlin the Yeomen, sparked by Pete Lund, a 6-foot-8 sophomore who contributed 35 points, defeated the University of Rochester 70-56. Oberlin trailed only in the opening minutes in posting its second victory in four starts. Rochester has been defeated five times.

Baldwin-Wallace completed the sweep by edging Rochester Tech 79-74 on the New Yorkers' floor. It was the Yellow Jackets first win in five games.

Three other Ohio teams were unable to record victories.

Earlham College of Richmond, Ind., was never in trouble and tied only once as it defeated Heidelberg 79-64. The losing Student Princes dropped their fifth game in six starts, but salvaged the night's scoring honors as Gene Wenger dropped in 21 points.

Central State, which hasn't won a game now in eight straight tries, was a victim of Hope College of Holland, Mich., 83-72.

Ohio University was handed a 72-65 defeat by a strong Nigara (N.Y.) team. It was the Bobcats second loss in a row, both of them on the road. They opened the season with three consecutive victories.

In intrastate battles, Wilmington's Quakers boosted their Mid-Ohio League record to 3-0 by defeating Ashland, 72-55, and Cedarville, with Bill Reese scoring 35 points, downed Malone College of Canton, 89-85. Malone's Dan Murphy of Van Wert tallied 31 points to lead the losers.

Browns To Pass More, But Won't Fill Air With 'Em

CLEVELAND (AP) — Don't expect the Cleveland Browns to fill the air with passes Sunday on their return to Yankee Stadium—even though Coach Paul E. Brown has indicated his club will pass more than last Sunday.

For one thing, the New York Giants have been tough to pass against. For another, Browns' quarterback Milt Plum lacks experience.

The Giants, who beat the Browns 13-10 in their last encounter to tie things up at the top of the Eastern Conference standings and force a playoff, have allowed opponents to complete only 45.7 per cent of their pass attempts. This is the best record in the National Football League.

Against the Browns, opponents have completed 51.9 per cent.

Reese Named Coach, Playing Days Over

LOS ANGELES (AP) — After a brilliant 16-year career, Pee Wee Reese is retiring as a shortstop to become a coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Vice President Buzzie Bavasi said Reese could have continued as an active baseball player on another club but that he preferred to be a coach with the Dodgers rather than change uniforms.

Reese starred in seven World Series and played in eight All Star games after replacing another great Brooklyn shortstop, Leo Durocher, in 1940.

Phil Cullen Mentioned On All-State Grid Squad

New Cumberland High School's fullback Phil Cullen has been named to the honorable mention list of the 1958 West Virginia All-State Class A football team.

None of the teams in the Northern Panhandle placed players on either the first or second Class A All-State teams, but Weirton-Madonna's flashy quarterback Ronnie Rumora was given a berth on the third team.

Two other Madonna players—end Tom Sessi and guard Marty Kaczmarek—made honorable mention along with Cullen.

A 150-pound senior, Cullen led New Cumberland to its best football season in several years this fall by scoring 13 touchdowns and an extra point for a total of 80 points.

It was the third best performance in the season for a back in the district. Bob Osterling of Leetonia with 101 and Denny Reese of Lisbon were the only two players ahead of Cullen in the East Liverpool district.

New Cumberland, coached by Charlie Miller, finished with a 4-3-2 record.

Cullen doesn't seem to limit his scoring feats to merely the gridiron. A forward on the basketball team, he has amassed a total of 85 points in five games this season, a 17 per game average.

PHIL CULLEN
New Cumberland Fullback.

His best night was a 30-point outburst, and 24 came in another game.

Termed by his coaches as a "good" student, he recently took a scholarship examination for the U. S. Military Academy at West Point. The University of Pittsburgh has also sent feelers his way, it was reported.

West Virginia AA Team Cites 11 Different Schools

WHEELING (AP) — Take four backs who scored the awesome total of 494 points during the season and place them behind a husky line which averages 192 pounds.

There you have the 1958 Class AA All-West Virginia high school football team. The selections were announced today by Sports Editor Bill Bibb of the Wheeling Intelligencer, chairman of the All-State football board.

Eleven schools are represented by the 10 seniors and one junior making up the first team.

Captain of the honor team is back Bobby Whaley of Williamson, who scored 92 points. Coach Hohn Moricle gives Whaley much of the credit for Williamson's 7-2-1 record, which included three victories over Class AAA opponents.

With Whaley in the All-State backfield are Johnny Skeens of Ceredo-Kenova, Jim Procopio of St. Marys and David Hathaway of Grantsville. Their season scoring totals were 73 for Skeens, 165 for Procopio, top scorer in the Little Kanawha Conference, and 164 for Hathaway, the L-K runnerup. Coincidentally, each of the backs weigh 165 pounds.

Picked for the All-State line were Don Smith (180) of Huntington Vinson and Larry Jasper (190) of Fayettville at ends; Burl Jones (195) of Sissonville and Leslie Bovaird (205) of Shady Spring at tackles; Bill Allara (190) of Matewan and Buster Rice (195) of Point Pleasant at guards, and J. P. Jones (190) at center. Allara is the only junior on the first team.

Skeens made the All-State second team two years ago as a sophomore, then missed part of the 1957 season because of a shoulder injury. Bovaird made the All-State second team last year.

The best state Class AA champion Roosevelt-Wilson could do was land one man, tackle Frank Sirianni, on the second team. He is the second team captain.

Following are the second and third team selections:

Second team — ends, Merlin Brown of Mullens and Butch McDaniels of Bridgeport; tackles, Sirianni and Eddie LaFon of New Martinsville; guards, Fayaz Ammar of Williamson and Dominick Casarcia of Follansbee; center, Charles Hicks of Benwood Union; backs, Gary Wilson of Hinton, Sam Bjelac of Follansbee, Pete Cartwright of Iaeger, and Marlin DeMoss of Monongah.

Colavito's .620 Average Paced Loop In Slugging

CHICAGO (AP) —Rocky Colavito, Cleveland's hard-hitting outfielder, led the American League last season in slugging with a .620 average.

Colavito finished far ahead of New York's Mickey Mantle, Kansas City's Bob Cerv and the 1957 champion Ted Williams of Boston. Mantle and Cerv climaxed the season with identical .592 averages and Williams, who won with a mark of .731 last year, finished fourth with a .584.

Colavtio had 303 total bases in 489 times at bat. His 41 homers were second only to Mantle's 42. He hit 26 doubles, 3 triples and drove in 113 runs, a total exceeded only by Jackie Jensen's 122 for Boston.

Mantle drew the most bases on balls, 129. In 1957 he led the league wuth 147. Of Mickey's 129 passes, 13 were intentional.

The champion Yankees led the league in team slugging with a .416 average. Cleveland was second with .403 followed by Boston with .400.

Junior tackle Dick Cieslielski was the only South Bend, Ind., player on Notre Dame's 1958 football squad.

UCLA Hires Barnes As Head Grid Coach

LOS ANGELES (AP) — UCLA has hired Bill Barnes, long time aide of the late Red Sanders as head football coach.

Wilbur Johns, athletic director, announced Thursday that the 41-year-old Barnes has signed a contract. He said it extends beyond one year but he declined to say exactly how long. The salary is believed to be $15,000 a year.

Barnes replaces George Dickerson, who suffered a nervous collapse last fall shortly after he replaced Sanders. Sanders died of a heart attack just before the football season opened.

North Carolina's football team, after losing its first two games last season, won six straight then bowed to Notre Dame, 34-24.

Valdes Risks Ring Rating

NEW YORK (AP)—Nino Valdes risks his lofty ranking and Pat McMurtry gets his big chance tonight in a heavyweight bout at Madison Square Garden.

Nino's voluble manager Bobby Gleason already has claimed the title for the 6-3 Cuban giant with the 81-inch reach.

McMurtry's manager his father, is particularly upset because his son didn't make the top 10 in the National Boxing Assn. ratings after he whipped George Chuvalo in the Garden Oct. 17. Ring was more impressed, placing him No. 10 among Floyd Patterson's contenders.

"I'm ready for the champ right now," said McMurtry, who hails from Tacoma, Wash. He is 26 and owns a fancy left.

His career record, dating back to 1954, is 30-2-1.

Big Nino, rated No. 2 by Ring and No. 4 by the NBA, is the man who really is taking a chance. After dropping a questionable decision to Alex Miteff in February, he has won five in a row. He took a decision over Wayne Bethea and Mike DeJohn, stopped Johnny Summerlin and Harold Carter and then whipped DeJohn again Aug. 15. He hasn't fought since but is a 7-5 favorite.

The Cuban was 34 Dec. 5. He has been fighting pro since 1941, compiling a 46-15-2 record.

NBC will broadcast and telecast at 10 p.m., EST.

U.S. Davis Cup Team Takes 2-0 Lead Over Italy

PERTH, Australia (AP) — A nervous Alex Olmedo, playing in his first Davis Cup match, and poised Ham Richardson sent the United States off to a 2-0 lead over Italy today in the interzone tennis final.

Olmedo, a 22-year-old Peruvian from the University of Southern California who never before had even seen a Davis Cup competition, shook off an early case of jitters and defeated the flashy Italian champion, Nicola Pietrangeli, 5-7, 10-8, 6-0, 6-1.

Pietrangeli, his fine game in tatters, won only one of the last 16 games—dropping 14 in a row at one stage.

Then Richardson, a former Rhodes scholar from Arlington, Va., stepped front and center at the Royal Kings Park club and, despite the 90-degree temperature cut down titantic, 6-7 Orlando Sirola 6-4, 6-2, 7-5.

Now Richardson and Olmedo, who hold the U. S. doubles championship, get a chance to clinch the zone final Saturday against the same pair.

The Americans are favored to win the doubles although Pietrangeli and Sirola, in six years of Davis Cup play together, have lost only two matches.

LSU won only 12 of its first 31 football games under Coach Paul Dietzel. But in 1958 Dietzel coached his team to 10 straight regular season victories. The Tigers were ranked No. 1 in The Associated Press poll.

Sports Officials Concerned Over Papers' Walkout

NEW YORK (AP) — Growing concern over the 10-day-old deliverers' strike which has stopped publication of New York's major newspapers was voiced today by sports promoters and officials in this news-hungry metropolis.

They blamed dwindling attendances on the shutdown.

Stepped-up sports coverage by radio and television stations apparently has been of little help and each sport, except for the Cleveland-New York professional game, has been hit in varying degrees.

A Madison Square Garden official estimated the loss in college and pro basketball attendance at 25 per cent.

Murray Goodman, publicity director, of the International Boxing Club, which is promoting tonight's Nino Valdes-Pat McMurtry fight in the Garden, pointed out, "It's even going to affect the television audience. Without the daily TV listings some people won't know that there'll be a fight to look at. I'd say we're going to run a couple of thousand dollars behind what we would have under ordinary circumstances."

Howell Surprised At Giants Amazing Climb To Grid Tie

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Lee Howell looks you straight in the eye when he tells you that nobody—but nobody—is more surprised than he over the New York Giants' amazing climb into a first-place Eastern Conference deadlock with the Cleveland Browns.

The tall Giant coach watched his squad perspire through its next-to-last stiff workout for the big playoff game Sunday against the Browns for the right to meet Baltimore in the NFL title game.

"When the season started I didn't think we'd win more than four games. And if I had known about all those injuries I'd have said we'd be lucky to win more than two games."

To what did he attribute the Giants' 9-3 record?

"A great defense, a good bench. Spirit, hustle, will to win, increasing confidence with each victory. Harmony and unity," he said.

Receives Contract

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cooper-Bessemer Corp., of Mount Vernon Thursday received a contract from the city of Cincinnati to supply an engine and generator equipmet for the Millcreek sewage disposal plant. The equipment, to cost $210,000, will augment the power supply needed to operate the plant.

Meet Dates Set For All But 5 Of Ohio Horse Racing Tracks

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Meet dates have been set for all but five of Ohio's horse racing tracks.

The state racing commission has yet to approve dates for Painesville Raceway, which had asked May 1-June 20; Northfield Park, which had asked May 8-June 27; Grandview, which had asked July 3-Aug. 22; Toledo-Maumee Raceway, which had asked April 22-May 16 and Oct. 7-Oct. 31, and Toledo Raceway Park, which had asked Sept. 11-Oct. 31.

The first three named, all near Cleveland, were told by the commission Thursday to submit new requests for dates.

The commission did not flatly refuse a proposal by Walter J. Michael, president of both Grandview and Northfield, to run racing meetings of both parks at Northfield. But the commission indicated it could not approve the proposal.

Commission chairman Thomas R. Lloyd suggested Painesville ask for 44 racing days beginning April 17, that Northfield begin June 11 and Grandview the first week in August. He said it was likely the tracks would agree to those dates.

The commission will meet again this year, probably Dec. 30, to set dates for those three tracks together with the two at Toledo.

The Randall Park dates were set for July 20-Sept. 8. That track had asked July 18-Sept. 7.

Beulah Park will hold its spring meeting May 2-May 23, as against the request of May 9-May 30. The fall dates of Aug. 28-Sept. 26 were granted. There will be no racing at Beulah Sept. 24, date for the Little Brown Jug at Delaware.

Beulah Park spring dates were changed because the request conflicted with the May 29-July 18 dates granted River Downs, as requested.

Dates granted as requested were:

Ascot Park April 3-May 23, Thistle Down May 29-July 18, Cranwood Raceway Sept. 11-Oct. 31, Columbus Trotting Assn., a new track, June 19-Aug. 8, Hamilton Raceway June 5-July 25 and Lebanon Trotting Assn. May 2-May 30 and Sept. 12-Oct. 3.

The commission also decided to ask the state fire marshal to inspect all race track grandstands and barns before racing meetings begin. This action follows a fire that destroyed the grandstand at Grandview Raceway late in November.

Navy Will Close 30 Ground Bases In Cutdown Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Costs and weapons advances have triggered a sweeping Navy cutback in shore establishments and spelled the end to a major missile program.

To keep pace with cutdowns in its operating forces, the Navy said Thursday night, 30 ground bases in 17 states will be closed, reduced or merged.

The announcement spoke of rising prices and higher labor costs. About 9,000 civilian jobs will be abolished over the next several years.

Canceled after an outlay of 78 million dollars was the Regulus II guided missile program. The air-breathing missile can soar more than 1,000 miles at twice the speed of sound. It flew in about 40 successful tests.

The Navy figured that by jettisoning Regulus II now it could save more than 100 million dollars for other projects. It said ballistic missiles — shot more like bullets — have better potential than the air-breathers guided like pilotless planes.

The Navy is now developing the Polaris 1,500-mile range ballistic missile. Like the Regulus, the Polaris could be fired with a nuclear warhead from submarines.

Browns' Costello Has Extra Reason For Grid Victory

CLEVELAND (AP) — With his wedding to a Massillon girl coming up two weeks from Saturday, Vince Costello, the Cleveland Browns middle guard, will have special incentive for a victory in New York Sunday.

A triumph over the Giants, followed by one in the title game with Baltimore, would mean a nest egg of $4,000 to $5,000 for the newlyweds.

Costello's financee is 20-year-old Sally Dutton, whom he met when she was working in a bank at Massillon last summer. An Ohio State University coed, she was runnerup in the last Miss Ohio Contest.

Costello, in his second year with the Browns, is 26 and an Ohio University graduate.

Naturally, Sally is a football fan, and the Browns have replaced the Buckeyes as her No. 1 team. She comes from a football - minded family.

Her father, Howard Dutton, played quarterback for Massillon High School in 1936. His coach was Paul E. Brown, current boss of her husband-to-be.

Baylor, Hundley Shine As Lakers Set Down Pistons

By The Associated Press

The Minneapolis Lakers of the National Basketball Assn. found a shortcut to success Thursday night: Give rookie Elgin Baylor some scoring help and come out a winner.

That is what the Lakers did and they wound up beating the Detroit Pistons 113-104. The Boston Celtics moved to a 1½ game lead in the NBA's Eastern Division over the idle New York Knicks with a 104-90 victory over the Cincinnati Royals in the other scheduled game.

For most of the season, Baylor, in his rookie year after an All-America season at Seattle University last year, has carried the Lakers fortunes. He has scored 637 points in 26 games.

Baylor hit for 26 Thursday night, but got help from six other teammates who also scored in double figures. Baylor and Rod Hundley sparked a scoring drive in the final four minutes that minimized George Yardley's 27 points and Phil Jordon's 24, which topped Detroit.

Buzz Wilkinson of Virginia's 1954 basketball team holds two Atlantic Coast Conference records. Against Duke in 1954 he had 22 foul shots and made 16, both league records.

Baseball To Soccer

NEW YORK — Bob Fishel, public relations director for the New York Yankees, went from the World Series to Europe for a four-week vacation with his mother, Mrs. O. J. Fishel. He visited London, Paris, Zurich, Rome, Madrid and Lisbon. His only connection with sports on the trip was as a spectator at a Madrid soccer game where 123,000 fans turned out for an exhibition. Bob paid $6 for his seat.

Jacksonville's Gator Bowl seats 42,000 fans.
